Contents

List	t of	figures	xiii
List	t of	tables	xiv
For	ewo	ord: Nafis Sadik, UNFPA	xv
For	ewo	ord: H. Munawir Sjadzali, Republic of Indonesia	xvi
For	ewa	ord: Professor Gamal Serour, Al-Azhar University	xvii
Pre.	face	•	xviii
Ack	nov	vledgments	xxi
Inta	odi	uction	. I
Α	wo	rking definition of family planning	4
Prologu	e:
		Sheikh Jadel Haq, the Grand Imam ar, on family planning	6
Part I	T	he Islamic Context
Chapter	1	Family and marriage in Islam	13
_		The family in Islam	13
		Role of the family	13
		The relationship between husband and wife	13
		Marriage in Islam	15
		General summary	15
		Marriage as a basic institution	16
		Marriage as a solemn covenant	17
		Marriage as a grave responsibility	17
		Age at marriage	18
			vii

CON	TT	NTS
CON	IL.	\mathbf{c}

	Polygyny Definition Permissibility of polygyny The wife can disallow polygyny The elements of planning in family and marriage Genetic considerations Cultural considerations Social considerations Marital competence Pregnancy planning	10 10 21 22 22 23 26 26
Chapter 2	Parent and child: rights of one, obligations of the other Rights of parents in Islam Rights of children in Islam Introduction Value of children in Muslim societies Children's rights and parents' obligations The enormity of the responsibility The need for planning	27 27 30 30 30 32 38
Chapter 3	Introduction Women personalities in the Qur'an The question of equality The human partnership Equality in religious duties Women's share in the Islamic revolution Equality in education Equality in the principle of jihad (religious war) Equity in treatment as daughters Equality in choosing marital partners Right to share in public life Women's privileges over men Men's privileges over women Controversies resolved Inheritance differentials and the status of women Woman as witness Women speak up for their rights	40 40 41 43 44 46 46 48 49 50 50 51 52 52 55
Chapter 4	Family planning and the basic precepts of Islam Introduction A religion of ease (yusr) not hardship ('usr)	59 59 59

A religion of moderation A religion for quality A religion for planning A religion for planning A religion for planning A religion for planning A religion for all times Changing population Islam and population change Part II Family Planning in the Qur' an and the Sunnah Chapter 5 Sources of Islamic jurisprudence Introduction and definitions Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 77 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles 79 Application to family planning 79 Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah)		-,	CONTENTS _
A religion for quality A religion for planning A religion for planning A religion for all times Changing population Islam and population change Chapter 5 Sources of Islamic jurisprudence Introduction and definitions Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		A religion of moderation	61
A religion for planning			62
A religion for all times Changing population Islam and population change Part II Family Planning in the Qur' an and the Sunnah Chapter 5 Sources of Islamic jurisprudence Introduction and definitions Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence I The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah)			62
Islam and population change Part II Family Planning in the Qur'an and the Sunnah Chapter 5 Sources of Islamic jurisprudence Introduction and definitions Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (ma'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97			65
Islam and population change Part II Family Planning in the Qur'an and the Sunnah Chapter 5 Sources of Islamic jurisprudence Introduction and definitions Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (ma'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Changing population	65
Chapter 5 Sources of Islamic jurisprudence 73 Introduction and definitions 73 Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 74 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 74 2 Complementary sources of law:
Introduction and definitions Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97	Part II	Family Planning in the Qur'an and the	Sunnah
Introduction and definitions Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97	Chapter	5 Sources of Islamic jurisprudence	73
Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence 1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles 79 Application to family planning 79 Adaptability of Islamic law 81 Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude 85 General statement Use of the Qur'an 86 The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97
1 The primary and prerequisite sources: 2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97
2 Complementary sources of law: consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles 79 Application to family planning 79 Adaptability of Islamic law 81 Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude 85 General statement 86 Use of the Qur'an 87 The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (ma'd) 88 Opponents 89 Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 89 Predestination (qadar) 89 Provision (rizq) 89 Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 89 Procreation 89 Procreation 89 Procreation and the value of children 89 Procreation and marriage 89 Additional arguments 90 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 97		the contract of the contract o
consensus and analogy 3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles 79 Application to family planning 79 Adaptability of Islamic law 81 Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude 85 General statement 86 Use of the Qur'an 87 The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (ma'd) 88 Opponents 89 Proponents 80 Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 89 Predestination (qadar) 89 Provision (rizq) 89 Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 89 Procreation 89 Procreation 89 Procreation and the value of children 89 Procreation and marriage 89 Additional arguments 90 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 97			71
3 Supplementary venues 4 Broad principles 79 Application to family planning 79 Adaptability of Islamic law 81 Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa 83 Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude 85 General statement Use of the Qur'an 86 The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97			77
Application to family planning 79 Adaptability of Islamic law 81 Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa 83 Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude 85 General statement 85 Use of the Qur'an 86 The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) 86 Opponents 87 Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 89 Predestination (qadar) 99 Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 90 Recation (rizq) 89 Procreation 109 Procreation
Application to family planning Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97
Adaptability of Islamic law Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		• •
Requirements of a new legal ruling or fatwa Chapter 6 The Qur'an and family planning including the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97
the question of multitude General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (ma'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 85 86 87 88 87 89 89 89 89 89 60 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 8
General statement Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (wa'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97	Chapter	6 The Qur'an and family planning including
Use of the Qur'an The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (ma'd) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		the question of multitude	85
The issue of equating family planning with Infanticide (mad) 86 Opponents 86 Proponents 87 Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 89 Provision (rizq) 90 Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 90 Procreation 92 Procreation 92 Procreation and the value of children 92 Procreation and marriage 94 Additional arguments 96 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		General statement	85
Infanticide (wad) Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 86 87 87 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 80 89 89 89 80 89 89 80 80 80 80 80 80 80 80 80 80 80 80 80		Use of the Qur'an	86
Opponents Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 89 Proponents 89		The issue of equating family planning with
Proponents Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 87 88 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89		Infanticide $(wa'd)$	86
Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Opponents	86
Allah (tawakkut) Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) Procreation Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 99 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 89 8		Proponents	87
Predestination (qadar) Provision (rizq) 90 Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 90 Procreation 92 Procreation and the value of children 92 Procreation and marriage 94 Additional arguments 96 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 97 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Predestination (qadar), provision (rizq) and rel	iance on
Provision (rizq) 90 Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 90 Procreation 92 Procreation and the value of children 92 Procreation and marriage 94 Additional arguments 96 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Allah (tawakkul)	89
Reliance on Allah (tawakkul) 90 Procreation 92 Procreation and the value of children 92 Procreation and marriage 94 Additional arguments 96 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Predestination (qadar)	89
Procreation 92 Procreation and the value of children 92 Procreation and marriage 94 Additional arguments 96 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Provision (rizq)	90
Procreation and the value of children Procreation and marriage Additional arguments Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts Proponents find evidence for spacing The question of multitude (kathrah) 92 94 Additional arguments 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 97		Reliance on Allah (tawakkul)	90
Procreation and marriage 94 Additional arguments 96 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97			92
Additional arguments 96 Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97			92
Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts 96 Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Procreation and marriage	94
Proponents find evidence for spacing 96 The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Additional arguments	96
The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Opponents refer to children as Allah's gifts	96
The question of multitude (kathrah) 97		Proponents find evidence for spacing	96
-			97
		-

CO	N	T	FN	JT	2

	•
Advocates of multitude	98
Response by proponents of family planning	102
Multitude versus harm to the mother:
a juristic evaluation	III
A demographic and cultural note	III
Requirements of Islamic multitude	112
Chapter 7 The Sunnah and family planning	113
Collections of Hadith (tradition)	113
A survey and classification of traditions concerning al-azl into nine categories:	115
1 The experience of the Companions with al-azl,
(Jabir's traditions) (three traditions)	115
2 Traditions denoting tacit approval by the Prophet of al-azl (three traditions)	120
3 Traditions in which sanction was verbalized by the Prophet (three traditions)	121
4 Al-azl and 'your wives are as tilth unto you' (five traditions)	123
5 Al-azl is allowed with a wife's consent
(two traditions)	125
6 Traditions with seemingly equivocal support for al-azl (six traditions)	126
7 Al-azl and al-ghayla (two traditions)	129
8 Traditions referring to al-azl as hidden infanticide
(one tradition)	130
9 Traditions denying that al-azl is minor infanticide	•
(seven traditions)	131
Appraisal of the evidence from the Sunnah	134
The permissibility of al-azl	134
Arguments against al-azl based on Judama's tradition	136
Refutation of the prohibition	137
In summary	141
Part III Family Planning in Islamic Jurisprudence Chapter 8 Family planning in Islamic jurisprudence (legal schools) from the seventh to the nineteenth century	145
A chronology of scholarship	145
Issues discussed by jurists	146
Schools of Islamic jurisprudence (al-madhahib al-fiqhiyya)	146

CONTENTS
----------	--

	The Sunni schools	147
	The Kharijite movement and the Ibaddi school	147 147
	The Shi'ites	148
	A final note	152
	Views of legal schools on family planning	152
	Common or jumhour position in Islam	152
	The Hanafi school (Sunni)	153
	The Maliki school (Sunni)	155
	The Shafe'i school (Sunni)	159
	The Hanbali school (Sunni)	162
	The Zaydi school (Shi'ite)	165
	The Imami (Twelvers) school (Shi'ite)	165
	The Isma'ili school (Shi'ite)	167
	The Zahiri school	167
	The Ibaddi school (Kharijite)	167
Chapter 9	Justifications for contraception in Islamic
•	jurisprudence	168
	General consideration	168
	Specified justifications by leading jurists	168
	Comment on the economic justifications	171
	Comment on the health justifications	173
	Comparison with Islamic medicine (from the earlier Islamic period)	173
	Back to jurisprudence	174
	Modern medicine	178
	Comment on the cultural justifications	182
Chapter 10	Family planning in Islamic jurisprudence:
	the more problematical issues	184
	Infertility and sterilization	184
	Infertility and artificial insemination	184
	The question of sterilization	187
	The question of abortion	190
	Opinion of legal schools	191
	Summary: four classes before 120 days	192
	After ensoulment: 120 days	192
	Views of other theologians	193
	The question of repudiating a child conceived
	despite contraception	193
	How the question arose	193
	How the jurists prepared themselves	194
		xi

CO	NT	ΈN	TS

	Islam and Family Planning in the Twentieth Century
Chapter 11	Conferences and publications by jurists on Islam
	and family planning	2
	New challenges to juristic research	2
	New challenges to the juristic process	2
	Theologians who oppose family planning	2
	Books by theologians on Islam and family planning	2
	Conferences on Islam and family planning Introduction	2
	Fatwa Committees and Councils	2
	The Rabat Conference	2
	The Rabat Conterence The Banjul (sub-Saharan) Conference	2
	The Dakar Seminar	2
	The Aceh Congress	2
•	The Mogadishu Conference	2
Chapter 12	Fatwas and opinions of other twentieth-century
	jurists on Islam and family planning	2
	A commentary on fatwas on family planning	2
	Fatwas from the Indian subcontinent	2:
	Opinions of other twentieth-century scholars ('ulama') A grand finale: The Grand Imam of Al-Azhar	2
	reconfirms in 1991 his views of 1979-80	2
Epilogue:
	on family planning by Sheikh
Abul-F	ath M. Khattab	2.
	lix 1: A chronology of theologians cited in this boo		2.
Append	lix 2: Text of the fatwas	2
Notes		2(
Bibliog	raphy	2(
Index		27

xii

Figures

ı.ı	Consanguineous marriages	24
2.1	The ten cardinal rights of children in Islam	32
2.2	The human life cycle	38
4.I	World population growth, past and projected	66
4.2	Models of growth in Muslim countries	68
5.1	Sources and venues of Islamic jurisprudence	75
6.ı	Requirements of Islamic multitude	112
7.I	The common compilations of hadith	116
8.1	Genealogy of founders of the Shi ite schools and the Abbasid
	dynasty	149
8.2	Founders of schools of jurisprudence	150
8.3	Schools of Islamic jurisprudence (al-madhahib al-fiqhiyya)	150
9.1	Justifications acceptable to jurists (and the key theologians who promoted them)	169
9.2	Selected texts of Islamic medicine	174
9.3	Excerpt from Avicinna	175
9.4	Excerpt from Ali Abbas	176
9.5	Excerpt from al-Jurjani	176
9.6	Excerpt from Ibn al-Jami'	177
9.7	Health risks associated with family formation	179
9.8	The health theme in family planning	182
I.I	How to calculate population growth	212