

Contents

Preface	ix
1 Introduction – definitions	1
2 Suicide from the perspective of cultural history	9
3 Suicide in art	22
4 Incidence – statistical data	25
5 Suicide in the Nordic countries	45
6 Why is the suicide rate lower in Norway than in the other Nordic countries?	65
7 Sex, age, marital status and social factors	75
8 Methods used in suicide and attempted suicide, and warnings	92
9 Suicide in physical illness and in general hospitals	103
10 Suicide in psychiatric illness	106
11 Suicide in psychiatric institutions	114
12 Psychological factors in suicide and attempted suicide	125
13 Suicide and biochemistry	131
14 The suicidal process	135
15 Assessment of the danger of suicide	142
16 Popular misconceptions about suicide	154
17 Treatment	156
18 Should the treatment of those who attempt suicide be centralised?	174

19	Special problems facing the bereaved after suicide	176
20	What happens afterwards to people who have attempted suicide?	178
21	What consequences does the suicide attempt have for the patient later?	191
22	Deficiencies in the treatment of patients who are under threat of committing suicide	202
23	Preventative measures	211
24	Suicide prevention measures in the present-day perspective. Experience of national programmes – World Health Organization strategy	231
	Appendix – Legal aspects	240
	Bibliography	243
	Index	253