

Contents

Preface vii

Acknowledgments xv

Part I: Bioethical Beginnings: The People and Places

1. Great Issues of Conscience: Medical Ethics Before Bioethics 3
2. The Theologians: Rediscovering the Tradition 34
3. The Philosophers: Clarifying the Concepts 65
4. Commissioning Bioethics: The Government in Bioethics, 1974–1983 90

Part II: Bioethical Beginnings: The Problems

5. Experiments Perilous: The Ethics of Research with Human Subjects 125
6. Splicing Life: Genetics and Ethics 166
7. The Miracle of Modern Medicine: The Ethics of Organ Transplantation and Artificial Organs 196
8. Who Should Live? Who Should Die? The Ethics of Death and Dying 233
9. O Brave New World! The Ethics of Human Reproduction 282

Part III: Discipline, Discourse, and Ethos

10. Bioethics As a Discipline 325
11. Bioethics As a Discourse 352
12. Bioethics—American and Elsewhere 377

Epilogue 406

Index 417