

---

Contents

---

List of figures and tables	viii
List of abbreviations	ix
Preface	xi
Introduction	1
1 Institutional change and capitalist collective action: the analytical framework and arguments	8
2 The state-led industrial adjustments in comparative perspective: Japan and France	35
3 The limits of state-led heavy and chemical industrialization	59
4 The policy formation of investment adjustment for economic stabilization	92
5 The policy failure of the first investment adjustment	128
6 The policy failure of the second investment adjustment	150
7 The politics of economic reform	186
8 The return to a collusive state-big business governing coalition: the disposals of financially ill-managed firms	202
Conclusion	229
Appendix A: Interviewees: names and brief careers	242
Appendix B: Changes in exchange rate between Korean won and US dollar, 1973-92	244
Bibliography	245
Index	278

---

Figures and tables

---

FIGURES

1 The analytical framework: the state-controlled industrial adjustment	19
2 The policy failure of heavy and chemical investment adjustment (mergers)	24
3 The state-led heavy and chemical industrial promotion (capital-intensive HCI sectors, particularly the machinery industry)	26
4 The disposals of financially ill-managed large firms in the declining industries	28
5 The administrative system of heavy and chemical industrial management	63
6 Support policies for heavy and chemical industries	72
7 The mechanism of the National Investment Fund	74

TABLES

1 The comparative analysis of the three industrial adjustments	29
2 The distribution of administrative tasks	62
3 Interest rates on various loans	67
4 Policy loans: 1975-79	73
5 Distortion in resource allocation	75
6 Indicators of major automobile companies (at the end of 1979)	83
7 External fund of corporate business sector	93