

Contents

1	Introduction	3
---	--------------	---

Part I The Child Welfare System in North America 7

2	Development of the System	11
3	Child Welfare Reform through Research and Demonstration: Permanency Planning	47
4	The Changing Social Portrait of Families	69
5	The Transformation of Child Welfare into Children's Protective Services	89
6	Decision-Making in Child Welfare: Linchpin of the Residual Model	127
7	Dealing with Child Abuse, the Red Herring of Child Welfare	157

Part II Ending Child Poverty 185

8	The Economic Condition of Children	189
9	Programs and Policies for Achieving Income Equity for Children	229
10	The Underlying Problem of Child Welfare: Families that are Not Economically Self-Supporting	257
11	Developing a Child's Future Security Account Program	301
12	A Vision For The Future	321
	Bibliography	337
	Author Index	377
	Subject Index	389