

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Notes on the Contributors	xi
Prologue: an AIDS Fable	xiv
1 Introduction: War of the World Brenda Almond	1
PART I THE MEDICAL PERSPECTIVE
2 AIDS: Clinical and Scientific Background Anthony Pinching	25
3 Haemophilia, AIDS and HIV: Some Social and Ethical Considerations Patricia Wilkie	34
4 HIV and Pregnancy Carole Ulanowsky and Brenda Almond	41
5 AIDS and Confidentiality: the Doctor's Dilemma Grant Gillett	56
6 Autonomy, Welfare and the Treatment of AIDS Roger Crisp	68
PART II THE COMMUNITY PERSPECTIVE
7 The Role of the Media and the Reporting of AIDS Julian Meldrum	85
8 AIDS: Risks and Discrimination Michael Smithurst	99
9 The Legal Implications of AIDS and HIV Infection in Britain and the United States Alistair Orr	112

PART III THE PERSONAL PERSPECTIVE

10	Coping with the Threat of Death Anthony Coxon	143
11	AIDS: Some Theological Considerations Anthony Lovegrove	153
12	Personal Issues and Personal Dilemmas Brenda Almond	161
	An AIDS Bibliography John Lord	169
	Name Index	176
	Subject Index	179