

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Series editor's introduction	x
Introduction	1
Maureen Cain and Christine B. Harrington
Part 1 Understanding lawyering	13
1 The symbol traders	15
Maureen Cain
2 Outlining a theory of legal practice	49
Christine B. Harrington
Part 2 Constituting capital and the state	71
3 Legal creativity: law, capital and legal avoidance	73
Doreen McBarnet
4 Capital fractionalized: the role of insolvency practitioners in asset distribution	85
Sally Wheeler
5 Blurred boundaries: the overlapping worlds of law, business and politics	105
David Sugarman

vi Contents

- 6 Lawyers' work as constitutive of gender relations 124
Sue Lees
- 7 The forum should fit the fuss: the economics and politics of negotiated justice 155
Yves Dezalay

Part 3 Towards prefigurative legal practices

- 8 Miners and lawyers: law practice and class conflict in Appalachia, 1872-1920 185
Frank Munger
- 9 Feminist legal scholarship and women's gendered lives 229
Martha L.A. Fineman
- 10 Para-legals and prefiguration: working in black townships towards a post-apartheid South Africa 247
Wilfried Schärf
- 11 The contradictions of radical law practice 265
Stuart Scheingold

Bibliography

Index

286
310