

Contents

The main German laws affecting the work of the THA . . . . .	XVI
Abbreviations . . . . .	XXI
Preface . . . . .	XXIII
by Wolfram Fischer
Introduction . . . . .	1
by Wolfram Fischer, Herbert Hax, and Hans K. Schneider

Part A The history, legal framework, and organisational structure of the Treuhandanstalt (THA)

The origins of the Treuhandanstalt . . . . .	15
by Wolfram Fischer and Harm Schröter
I. Introduction . . . . .	15
II. The roots of the Treuhand: The first route and the search for a third . . . . .	16
1. The citizens' movement and the SPD . . . . .	16
2. The GDR government . . . . .	18
3. Western reform proposals . . . . .	24
III. The establishment of the Original-Treuhandanstalt . . . . .	25
IV. The Original-THA until June 1990 . . . . .	29
V. The wording of the Treuhand Act of 17th June 1990 . . . . .	31
VI. Conclusions . . . . .	36
VII. Literature . . . . .	38
The Treuhandanstalt under public law . . . . .	40
by Michael Kloepfer, with the assistance of Jobst-Friedrich von Unger
I. Legal form . . . . .	40
1. Original-THA . . . . .	40
2. Treuhand Act . . . . .	41
3. Treaty of Unification . . . . .	41

II.	Internal organisation . . . . .	41
1.	Executive Board . . . . .	42
2.	Administrative Board . . . . .	43
3.	Branches and offices . . . . .	44
4.	Treuhand-Aktiengesellschaften . . . . .	45
III.	Tasks and duties . . . . .	46
1.	Original-THA . . . . .	46
a)	Safeguarding and administering state property . . . . .	47
b)	Conversion of economic units into joint-stock companies . . . . .	48
c)	Privatisation . . . . .	48
2.	The THA . . . . .	49
a)	Privatisation . . . . .	49
b)	Restructuring . . . . .	50
c)	Close-down . . . . .	51
d)	Structural adaptation to the economy . . . . .	51
e)	Preserving and creating jobs . . . . .	51
f)	Reprivatisation . . . . .	51
g)	Communalisation . . . . .	51
h)	Property assignment . . . . .	52
i)	Issuing investment priority notices . . . . .	52
j)	Granting of real estate transaction licences . . . . .	53
k)	Administration of special assets . . . . .	53
l)	Financing of the Loan winding-up Fund and the State Insurance of East Germany (in liquidation) . . . . .	54
m)	Granting of certificated savers' share rights . . . . .	54
3.	Conflicts of aims and ranking order of the tasks . . . . .	55
a)	Original-THA . . . . .	55
b)	THA . . . . .	55
IV.	Financing . . . . .	57
V.	Supervision . . . . .	58
1.	Executive supervision . . . . .	58
a)	Original-THA . . . . .	59
b)	THA prior to 3rd October 1990 . . . . .	59
c)	THA after 3rd October 1990 . . . . .	60
2.	Parliament . . . . .	62
a)	Regulation . . . . .	62
b)	Monitoring . . . . .	62
3.	Courts of Audit (Rechnungshöfe) . . . . .	65
4.	The "Länder" (Federal States) . . . . .	68
5.	Commission of the European Communities . . . . .	69
6.	Courts . . . . .	69
VI.	Legal liability . . . . .	75
VII.	Summary . . . . .	77
VIII.	Literature . . . . .	78

The legal framework and its changes . . . . .	86
by Harm Peter Westermann
I. On the individual questions: the contribution made by private law to the history of the THA . . . . .	86
II. The responsibilities of the THA . . . . .	88
1. Divergent responsibilities for a new market structure . . . . .	88
2. Priority order of the tasks? . . . . .	90
III. The role of the THA in the transformation of state-owned into privately owned property . . . . .	92
1. The relevant laws . . . . .	92
2. Tangible assets to be privatised . . . . .	94
3. The first phase of privatisation . . . . .	95
4. The significance of property assignment . . . . .	98
IV. The role of the THA in restitution to former owners and fresh privatisation . . . . .	100
1. The claimant or the substance of a restitution claim . . . . .	101
2. The questions arising from investment priority . . . . .	103
3. Rival investment projects . . . . .	105
4. Questions of damages . . . . .	106
V. Conclusion . . . . .	107
1. Summary . . . . .	107
2. Prospects . . . . .	108
VI. Literature . . . . .	109
 The organisational development of the THA . . . . .	112
by Wolfgang Seibel, with the assistance of Stefan Kapferer
I. The THA as the institutional legacy of the GDR . . . . .	112
II. The THA as a “virtual” organisation . . . . .	115
1. The short reign of President Gohlke . . . . .	116
2. The decision not to form the Treuhand-Aktiengesellschaften . . . . .	118
III. Basic decisions on organisational strategy: centralisation and decentralisation, divisional and functional structure . . . . .	122
1. Construction of the THA branches . . . . .	123
2. The re-organisation of the THA Central Office . . . . .	128
IV. Organisational consolidation . . . . .	131
1. Improvements in political integration . . . . .	131
2. The assassination of Dr. Detlev Rohwedder, THA President, and the resultant reorganisation of the Executive Board . . . . .	135
3. Particular features of the personnel structure and “THA culture” . . . . .	138
V. Prospects for the THA and its gradual liquidation . . . . .	144
VI. Literature . . . . .	147
 The THA in its environment of politics and interest groups . . . . .	148
by Roland Czada
I. Dependencies and networks . . . . .	148
II. Intermediary between Federal and State levels . . . . .	150

1.	States co-ordination institutions . . . . .	152
2.	The THA as a “second eastern German government”? . . . . .	154
3.	Management Committee, “Ludewig group”, Bundestag . . . . .	157
III.	Interest associations and administrative bodies in the THA complex . . . . .	159
1.	Labour market and industrial relations . . . . .	162
2.	Municipalities, former owners, and investment priority . . . . .	165
3.	Refinancing the THA . . . . .	167
IV.	Conclusion: Politics in a network-like decision-making structure . . . . .	169
V.	Literature . . . . .	172

Part B The Treuhand’s working priorities

Supporting companies capable of being restructured on their way to privatisation . . . . .	177
by Joachim Schwalbach, with the assistance of Sven-E. Gless

I.	Introduction . . . . .	177
II.	Fundamental questions of company restructuring . . . . .	178
1.	The process of restructuring . . . . .	178
2.	Restructuring concept . . . . .	178
III.	The THA’s examination of a company’s ability to be restructured . . . . .	180
1.	Necessity of developing restructuring concepts . . . . .	180
2.	Guidelines for preparing restructuring concepts . . . . .	181
3.	Sequence of treatment and bodies giving approval . . . . .	183
4.	Categorisation of suitability for restructuring . . . . .	185
IV.	Persons and organisations responsible for the management of restructuring . . . . .	189
1.	Internal groups . . . . .	189
a)	Executive Board/managing directors . . . . .	189
b)	Supervisory/Advisory Boards . . . . .	190
c)	Middle and junior management . . . . .	191
d)	THA . . . . .	191
2.	External groups . . . . .	192
a)	Management consultancy companies . . . . .	192
b)	Banks . . . . .	193
V.	Coping with the crisis in eastern German companies . . . . .	193
1.	Problem areas in restructuring . . . . .	194
a)	Strategy . . . . .	194
b)	Product . . . . .	194
c)	Company structure . . . . .	194
d)	Production . . . . .	195
e)	Purchasing . . . . .	195
f)	Sales/marketing . . . . .	195
g)	Management/administration . . . . .	196
h)	Company profits . . . . .	197
2.	Example of restructuring: Dessauer Gasgeräte GmbH . . . . .	198

VI.	Financial contributions by the THA . . . . .	201
VII.	Models for continuing the restructuring of THA companies . . . . .	205
1.	Management-KG companies . . . . .	206
2.	The ATLAS model . . . . .	207
VIII.	Conclusion . . . . .	208
IX.	Literature . . . . .	208
 Privatisation strategies . . . . .		211
by Klaus-Dieter Schmidt, with the assistance of Uwe Siegmund
I.	Introduction . . . . .	211
II.	Aims of privatisation . . . . .	213
1.	Task defined by legislation . . . . .	213
2.	The public's expectations . . . . .	215
3.	The THA's point of view . . . . .	215
III.	Privatisation procedures . . . . .	217
IV.	Privatisation in practice . . . . .	220
1.	Preparation . . . . .	221
a)	Splitting and hiving off for closure . . . . .	221
b)	Classification . . . . .	222
c)	Initial restructuring . . . . .	223
d)	Privatisation marketing . . . . .	224
2.	Execution . . . . .	225
a)	Selling procedure . . . . .	225
aa)	Normal method . . . . .	225
bb)	Special methods . . . . .	226
b)	"Sensitive" areas . . . . .	229
3.	On-going supervision and monitoring success . . . . .	231
V.	Evaluation of privatisation . . . . .	231
1.	Effectiveness . . . . .	232
2.	Transparency . . . . .	232
3.	Costs . . . . .	232
VI.	Appendix: Privatisation in three branches of the economy . . . . .	233
1.	Manufacture of food, beverage, and tobacco . . . . .	233
2.	The micro-electronic industry . . . . .	235
3.	Ship-building . . . . .	236
VII.	Literature . . . . .	239
 Restitution of property to the previous owners (reprivatisation) . . . . .		241
by Hans Willgerodt
I.	Privatisation as the THA's responsibility . . . . .	241
II.	Is restitution an obstacle to investment and reconstruction? . . . . .	244
III.	The widening of Investment Priority . . . . .	248
IV.	The development of reprivatisation . . . . .	251
1.	Restitution of companies . . . . .	251
2.	Restitution of parts of companies and plots of land . . . . .	256

V.	Conclusion . . . . .	261
VI.	Literature . . . . .	262
Communalisation and other forms of property transfer to the public sector . . . . .		265
by Klaus König, with the assistance of Jan Heimann and Imke Junge
I.	Publicly owned property in the divided Germany . . . . .	265
II.	Assignment of property under transformation and unification law . . . . .	267
III.	Transfer of publicly owned assets by the Treuhandanstalt . . . . .	270
IV.	Main problems in property transfer . . . . .	272
V.	Transfer of property in the process of decision-making . . . . .	275
VI.	The new system of publicly owned property . . . . .	278
VII.	Literature . . . . .	282
The Treuhandanstalt and the winding up of companies incapable of being effectively restructured . . . . .		285
by Eckhard Wandel, with the assistance of Marcus W. Mosen
I.	Introduction . . . . .	285
II.	Winding up as a form of company liquidation in eastern Germany . . . . .	285
	1. The parameters of the Treuhandanstalt's mandate . . . . .	285
	2. Definition of winding up . . . . .	286
	3. Liquidation and bankruptcy as winding-up alternatives . . . . .	287
III.	Phases in the winding-up process: a process-orientated approach . . . . .	289
	1. Categorisation and preliminary investigation . . . . .	289
	2. Winding up (as a procedure) . . . . .	291
	3. Controlling and contract management in winding-up proceedings . . . . .	293
IV.	New practices, problem areas, and particular features of winding up . . . . .	294
	1. The liquidator's work . . . . .	294
	2. The active collaboration of the Treuhandanstalt . . . . .	295
	3. Problem areas in the winding-up process . . . . .	297
	4. Particular features of the winding up of foreign trade companies . . . . .	298
	5. Particular features of the winding up of formerly state-owned farms . . . . .	300
V.	Results achieved to date in winding up Treuhandanstalt companies . . . . .	301
	1. Interim balance of results to date . . . . .	301
	2. Exemplary liquidation proceedings . . . . .	306
	a) Mitteldeutsche Beton- und Kieswerke GmbH i. L. . . . .	306
	b) Sächsische Elektronikwerke GmbH i. L. . . . .	306
	c) Baustoffe Porschendorf GmbH i. L. . . . .	307
	d) Gummiwerke Rotpunkt GmbH i. L. . . . .	307
	e) Märkische Milchwirtschaft GmbH i. L. . . . .	307
	f) Margarethenhütte Großdubrau GmbH i. L. . . . .	308
VI.	Summary . . . . .	308
VII.	Literature . . . . .	309
Contract drafting and contract management by the Treuhandanstalt . . . . .		317
by Hans-Ulrich Küpper, with the assistance of Robert Mayr
I.	Aim and purpose of the investigation . . . . .	317

II.	Shape and dimensions of contract drafting . . . . .	317
1.	Overall conditions affecting contract drafting . . . . .	317
a)	THA's system of aims for contract drafting . . . . .	317
b)	Economic environment of contract drafting . . . . .	318
c)	Legal environment of contract drafting . . . . .	319
2.	Types of draft contracts . . . . .	320
a)	Differences reflecting purpose of contract . . . . .	320
b)	Differences reflecting the contracting parties . . . . .	321
3.	The development over time of contract drafting . . . . .	322
4.	Systematisation of the individual contract components . . . . .	323
a)	Contractual clauses for ensuring the achievement of THA aims . . . . .	323
b)	Contractual clauses for managing legal and economic risks . . . . .	327
5.	Assessment of contract drafting . . . . .	328
III.	Methods and processes of contract management . . . . .	329
1.	Purpose and processes of contract management . . . . .	329
a)	Aims of contract management . . . . .	329
b)	Detailed responsibilities and work phases of Contract Management . . . . .	330
2.	Organisation and financial control of contract management . . . . .	334
a)	Organisational integration of contract management at the Central Office . . . . .	334
b)	Organisational integration of contract management in the Regions . . . . .	337
c)	EDP-assisted information system for contract management . . . . .	339
IV.	Initial considerations for an efficiency analysis of contract drafting and contract management . . . . .	341
1.	Basic concept of an efficiency analysis of contract drafting and contract managment . . . . .	341
2.	Evaluation of possible quality dimensions . . . . .	341
3.	Operationalisation of individual quality dimensions . . . . .	341
4.	Organisation of the data retrieval . . . . .	342
5.	Results of the statistical evaluation of the data . . . . .	343
V.	Literature . . . . .	349

Part C The effects of the Treuhänder's work

The public image of the THA
by Hans Mathias Kepplinger, with the assistance of Christian Kolmer . . . . .		353
I.	Introduction . . . . .	353
II.	The press response obtained by the THA . . . . .	354
1.	Qualitative analyses: case studies of liquidation, restructuring and privatisation . . . . .	354
a)	Liquidation (Robotron) . . . . .	354
b)	Restructuring (Orwo) . . . . .	356
c)	Privatisation (Sächsische Edelstahlwerke Freital) . . . . .	357
2.	Quantitative analysis: subjects and trends of press reporting . . . . .	359

III.	Comparison between the interests of callers using the "citizens' telephone" and the subjects of press coverage . . . . .	363
IV.	Summary and interpretation . . . . .	366
V.	Literature . . . . .	368
Structural effects of privatisation by the THA . . . . .		369
by Jürgen Müller, with the assistance of Georg Merdian and Donat von Müller
I.	Introduction . . . . .	369
II.	Industry structure in the GDR (in 1989) and the importance of the main sectors . . . . .	369
	1. Kombinate and other forms of state-owned companies . . . . .	369
	2. Sectoral importance . . . . .	371
III.	Sectoral adjustment from the macro-economic point of view . . . . .	374
	1. Effect on levels . . . . .	374
	2. Effect of structural adaptation . . . . .	375
IV.	Adjustment of company structures within each industry . . . . .	376
	1. Components of change in market structure . . . . .	376
	2. Horizontal, vertical, and geographical unbundling . . . . .	377
V.	Commercialisation and the problem of supervision of companies . . . . .	380
	1. Autonomous structural change and passive privatisation . . . . .	380
	2. Controlled structural change by the THA . . . . .	383
	3. Structural change through the Management-KG's . . . . .	384
VI.	Different kinds of restructuring by the THA and by other parties . . . . .	384
	1. Privatisation or restructuring . . . . .	384
	2. Privatisation by the THA . . . . .	387
	3. Mergers and diversification . . . . .	389
	4. MBO/MBI . . . . .	392
	5. Restitution . . . . .	394
	6. Private and small and medium-sized enterprises (SME's) . . . . .	394
	7. Companies based on ABM and ABS job creation schemes . . . . .	395
	8. Liquidation . . . . .	397
	9. Restructuring and the retention of industrial core activities . . . . .	398
VII.	Results of the process of structural change . . . . .	399
VIII.	Literature . . . . .	402
Regional aspects of the THA's privatisation work . . . . .		404
by Paul Klemmer, with the assistance of Frank Aarts and Christian Cesar
I.	Statement of problem . . . . .	404
II.	Operationalisation of the THA's targets . . . . .	405
	1. General considerations . . . . .	405
	2. Operationalisation of the degree of privatisation at the regional level . . . . .	408
III.	Possible regional influences . . . . .	409
IV.	Selected regional results . . . . .	413
V.	The influence of regional factors . . . . .	431
VI.	Literature . . . . .	437

Regulation of the social effects of the THA's work by labour law . . . . .	439
by Peter Hanau, with the assistance of Ralf Steffan
I.    Introduction . . . . .	439
II.   Trends in employment statistics as a result of privatisation, restructuring, and closure . . . . .	440
1. Course of events . . . . .	440
2. Possible courses of action . . . . .	440
III.  Job security in the case of company disposal . . . . .	441
1. Undertakings to preserve or create jobs . . . . .	441
2. Management Buy-Out . . . . .	443
3. Consequences of the passage of ownership . . . . .	444
a) Basic area of application of § 613a of the Civil Code in the THA's sphere of influence . . . . .	444
b) Amendment of § 613a of the Civil Code by the Splitting Act . . . . .	444
IV.   Necessity for and problems caused by mass redundancy . . . . .	448
1. Basic principles . . . . .	448
2. Short-time working instead of dismissal . . . . .	448
3. Social responsible selection and operational needs under § 1 section 3 sentence 2 of the Dismissals Protection Act in the case of mass redundancies . . . . .	449
4. Redundancies and reconciliation of interests . . . . .	451
V.    Social plan . . . . .	452
1. Significance . . . . .	452
2. Existence of a works council . . . . .	452
3. Situations giving rise to a compulsory social plan . . . . .	454
a) Introduction of short-time working . . . . .	454
b) Change of company ownership . . . . .	454
c) Establishment of new company . . . . .	455
4. THA social plan guidelines . . . . .	457
a) Events leading up to the agreement of 13th April 1991 . . . . .	457
b) "Ear-marking" . . . . .	458
c) Persons entitled to make claims . . . . .	460
d) Effect of the Guidelines on social plans . . . . .	461
e) Legal nature and questions of liability . . . . .	461
f) Possibilities for changing an existing social plan . . . . .	462
VI.   THA's active labour market policy . . . . .	465
1. Participation in job-promotion schemes . . . . .	465
a) THA's standpoint . . . . .	465
b) ABS job creation programme - outline agreement of 17th July 1991 . . . . .	465
c) Agreement between the THA and the chemicals and paper industry trade union . . . . .	466
2. Assistance with basic vocational training . . . . .	467
VII.  Works agreements and collective wage agreements . . . . .	468
1. Co-operation with the trade unions . . . . .	468
2. Guidelines on works agreements and collective wage agreements . . . . .	469

VIII.	Net outcome . . . . .	471
1.	Net outcome in social terms . . . . .	471
2.	Net outcome in terms of social law . . . . .	471
IX.	Literature . . . . .	472

The THA – a trials ground for developing new company forms . . . . . 478
 by Horst Kern and Charles F. Sabel

I.	Introduction . . . . .	478
II.	Co-operative experiments in the development of companies capable of privatisation . . . . .	481
1.	The ATLAS project in Saxony . . . . .	481
2.	The Brandenburg EKO-Stahl project . . . . .	487
3.	The Management-KG project . . . . .	492
III.	On the nature of experimental co-operation ideas . . . . .	496
IV.	Literature . . . . .	500

The THA and Eastern Europe . . . . . 501 by Günter Hedtkamp and Hermann Clement, with the assistance of Ludwig Koehne

I.	The changed foreign trade environment in Eastern Europe for companies in the former German Democratic Republic . . . . .	501
1.	The collapse of COMECON . . . . .	501
2.	Re-evaluation of the political significance of COMECON by the Soviet Union . . . . .	502
3.	Economic re-evaluation of trading relationships by the Soviet Union . . . . .	502
4.	The collapse of COMECON and the termination of the accounting system based on "Transfer Rouble" . . . . .	503
5.	Changes in investment policy . . . . .	503
6.	The collapse of the Soviet Union . . . . .	504
7.	East Germany's slowness in understanding the changes . . . . .	505
II.	Dependency of eastern German businesses on trade with Eastern Europe . . . . .	506
III.	The opening of the East-Central European market to goods and capital . . . . .	510
IV.	The reaction of the THA and its companies to the changes occurring in Eastern Europe . . . . .	511
1.	The THA's tasks with regard to the eastern markets . . . . .	511
2.	The principal players and their knowledge of the situation . . . . .	512
3.	Interplay between the THA and the Federal Government . . . . .	515
4.	The THA companies' plans and ideas relating to developments in eastern markets . . . . .	521
5.	Co-operation by the THA and its companies with regard to secure export business in eastern markets and to restructure their turnover . . . . .	523
6.	Summary . . . . .	525
V.	Literature . . . . .	526

Statistical Appendix	528
A chronicle of the THA	561
Tables and figures	568
Index of authors	571