
Contents

Tables and Figures	vii
Preface	ix
1 Traditions and Transitions: Reflections on the Problems and Prospects for Religions in Eastern and Central Europe	1
Roberto Cipriani
2 Religio-Nationalist Subcultures under the Communists: Comparisons from the Baltics, Transcaucasia, and Ukraine	17
Hank Johnston
3 Religion in Postcommunist Countries: A Comparative Study of Religiousness in Byelorussia, Ukraine, Lithuania, Russia, and Poland	37
Irena Borowik
4 The New Europe and the Value Orientations of Young People: East-West Comparisons	47
Luigi Tomasi
5 From Glasnost to Dukhovnost? The Commonwealth's Alienation Crisis	65
Patricia Ann Wasely Lomire
6 Religious and National Identity of Russians	83
Natalia P. Dinello

7	Churches, Politics, and Society in Postcommunist East Central Europe	101
	Ivan Varga
8	Religion, Communism, and Democracy in Central Europe: The Polish Case	119
	Patrick Michel
9	The Crash of the Sacred Canopy in Polish Society: A Systems Theory Approach	133
	Enzo Pace
10	The Church as Catalyst in East Germany's Freedom Movement	145
	Karen C. Hartley
11	Germany's Reconstruction: The Role of the Eastern German Evangelical Church before and after Reunification	163
	Robert E. Beckley, H. Paul Chalfant, and D. Paul Johnson
12	Social and Ethical Aspects of the Development of the Slovak Evangelical Church in the Twentieth Century	179
	Vasil Gluchman
13	Medjugorje and the Crisis in Yugoslavia	197
	Gerald E. Markle and Frances B. McCrea
	References	209
	Index	223
	About the Editor and Contributors	227

Tables and Figures

TABLES

1.1	Religious Affiliations in Eastern and Central Europe	5
3.1	Attitudes toward Religion	38
3.2	Attitudes toward Religious Practice	39
3.3	Attitudes toward Faith in the Soletchniki Region of Lithuania	40
3.4	Expectations of Religion	45
6.1	Public Trust in Social Institutions	92
6.2	Confidence in Leaders of Social Institutions on the Part of the American Public	93
6.3	National and Religious Identity	95
6.4	Religious Self-Identification as a Predictor of Identity	96
6.5	Religious and Cultural Criteria of "Russianness" as Predictors of Identity	97
6.6	Regional Variations in Religious Attitudes	98

FIGURES

3.1	Profession of Faith by Poles during the Postwar Period	42
3.2	Profession of Faith and Confidence in the Roman Catholic Church in Poland	44
5.1	Recommendations for Future Restructuring: An Overview	78