

Contents

The Contributors	9
Foreword David McClelland	15
Introduction Nick Boulter and Jackie Hill	21
1 Building Competitive Advantage Through People Murray Dalziel	23
What is in this book for you?	23
Change is constant – and fast	25
Blueprints and the real nature of work	25
What this means for the human resources agenda	26
2 Improving Organisational Performance : Aligning Corporate Strategy and the Management of People Sylvia DeVoge and Chris Dyson	35
The link between business results and people	35
Integrated solutions	37
The Business Benefits Trail	39
3 ✓ Why are Some People More Successful than Others? Patricia Marshall	49
What is a competency?	51
The benefits of a competency-based approach	53
Stages of competency definition	54

People and Competencies

Competencies for the future	59
Creating value	60
4 Worldwide Leadership Differences	61
John Larrere
A world of difference	61
Competencies are situational	62
Generic competencies: common ground	63
Focus — the handwriting on the wall	63
Building commitment	65
Driving for success	66
Critical differences: ignore them at your peril!	66
How business is conducted in different cultures	68
5 Developing the Leaders of Tomorrow at Unilever	75
Nick Boulter
Developing management capability	76
The best and the very best	77
Culture fit and buy-in	79
Other applications	80
6 Why do Outside Experienced Hires Fail? — A Case Study of Competency-based Assessment and Selection	83
Mary Fontaine
Identifying executives who would succeed	84
Cultural competencies: companies will reject executives who aren't good fits	85
'Compensatory models' of competence: one size doesn't fit all	86
Conclusion	89
7 Managing for Motivation and Performance Improvement	91
Jim Burruss
How to do it	92
The current norms in organisations	92
Motivation and job requirements	93
Managerial styles and practices	96
Organisational climate: standards, responsibility and rewards	99

Contents

Putting it all together	100
Summary and recommendations	102
8 Coaching in — Appraisal Out	105
Frank Hartle
The mixed model approach	109
A model for the future	112
When is it worthwhile?	114
The link with pay	116
9 Relating Pay to Competencies	117
Derek Pritchard
Why relate pay to competencies?	117
Terminology	120
Achieving the balance	121
Work cultures	122
Relating pay to competencies — practical issues	126
10 Getting the Right People for the Job	129
Daniel Bouchard
Recruitment — reducing turnover	129
Focused interviewing	129
Prerequisites	130
Conclusion	138
11 How to use Competencies in Assessment	141
Heather Bell
Links to business success	142
12 Improving Management Competence at Levi Strauss	145
Erin Lap and Axel Peters
Project purpose and requirements	146
Added value	149
Index	151