Contents

List of figures		ix
	face	xi
	knowledgements	xiii
	ossary of terms	XV
Int	roduction	xix
Par	t I The multi-disciplinary context
1	What is multi-disciplinary child protection work?	3
	The definition	3
	Childhood	3 3 4 5 5
	Child protection	5
	The multi-disciplinary child protection system	5
	Child protection perspectives	6
	The history of multi-disciplinary child protection work	9
	Conclusion	16
2	How one system works	17
	The Area Child Protection Committee	18
	The process	24
	Child and parent involvement	37
	Power and influence within the system	37
	Legal proceedings	38
	Conclusion	39
3	The structural blocks to multi-disciplinary working	41
	The individual versus the structural	42
	Structural blocks to multi-disciplinary work	44

vi	Contents

	The nature of child protection work Conclusion	51 56
Par	t II Agencies and practitioners
4	The Social Services Department	63
	The field social worker	66
	The social work manager	72
	The social work assistant	7 5
	The residential social worker	76
	The foster carer	79
	The child protection coordinator/specialist child protection	04
	team The conjugatement of the	81
	The senior manager The elected member	83
	Other groups of staff	84 85
	Conclusion	86
	Conclusion	00
5	The Health Service	87
	Confidentiality	88
	Consent	89
	The rule of optimism and the rule of natural love	89
	The paediatrician	90
	The health visitor	93
	The general practitioner	97
	The child psychiatrist	100
	The child psychologist	101
	The police surgeon	103
	Conclusion	105
6	The Education Service	107
U	The governor	107
	The headteacher	110 112
	The designated teacher	115
	The teacher	116
	The school nurse	118
	The education social worker (education welfare officer)	120
	The youth worker	121
	Conclusion	123
7	The legal system and related practitioners	125
	The public versus the private domain	126
	The criminal law	127

The civil law The judge The magistrate The court clerk The solicitor The solicitor The Police The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The manager		Content	s vii
The judge The magistrate The court clerk The barrister The barrister The solicitor The Police The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		The civil law	130
The magistrate The court clerk The barrister The barrister The solicitor The Police The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			132
The court clerk The barrister The solicitor The Police The Police The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion 158 Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		, 0	134
The barrister The solicitor The Police The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			135
The Police The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion 158 Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			136
The Police The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion 158 Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			137
The probation officer The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			139
The guardian ad litem Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion 158 Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			142
Conclusion 8 Voluntary organisations The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion 158 Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			144
The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			146
The NSPCC The established child welfare voluntary organisations Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer	8	Voluntary organisations	149
Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			150
Specific voluntary organisations and pressure groups The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		The established child welfare voluntary organisations	154
The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice The National Association of Young People in Care and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			155 and the Children's Legal Centre Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		The Family Rights Group and Parents Against Injustice	155
Childline Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			156
Local child- and parent-orientated organisations Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Adult-orientated voluntary organisations Conclusion Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer
Conclusion 158 Part III Working together 9 Child protection work and the individual 163 Personal history/personal reaction 163 Inequality of power 166 Stress 168 Conclusion 168 10 Towards good practice 171 Good practice 172 The practitioner 172 Human issues 173 Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation 173 Dealing with conflict 179 Further levels of responsibility within the system 180 The chairperson 180 The multi-disciplinary trainer 181 The multi-disciplinary trainer 182		Adult orientated voluntary organisations
9 Child protection work and the individual Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer
Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer	Par	t III Working together
Personal history/personal reaction Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer	9	Child protection work and the individual	163
Inequality of power Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer	-		163
Stress Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		· •	166
Conclusion 10 Towards good practice Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		* · ·	168
Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			168
Good practice The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer	10	Towards good practice	171
The practitioner Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer	_		171
Human issues Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			172
Overcoming the structural blocks to professional cooperation 176 Dealing with conflict 179 Further levels of responsibility within the system 180 The chairperson 180 The single-disciplinary trainer 181 The multi-disciplinary trainer 182		-	17 3 cooperation Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer
Dealing with conflict Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			17€
Further levels of responsibility within the system The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			179
The chairperson The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer		Further levels of responsibility within the system	180
The single-disciplinary trainer The multi-disciplinary trainer			180
The multi-disciplinary trainer			181
			182
			182

	\sim
V111	Contents
A 111	Connentia

	The ACPC The political system/resourcing child protection work Equalising primary interventions Conclusion	183 184 185 185
11	Conclusion	187
Rei Ind	ferences lex	191 195

List of figures

1.1	The influence of action perspectives	8
	The continuum of child protection perspectives	9
	The typical Area Child Protection Committee	21
	Hierarchy and power in ACPCs	22
	The stages of the child protection process	25
	Primary interventions	35
	Typical Social Services Department	65
	The Education Service	111
	Personal reaction to difficult child protection issues	165