

CONTENTS

Chapter 1. The Definition and Epidemiology of Intimate Partner Violence	1
Identifying Intimate Partner Violence	1
Defining Intimate Partner Violence	1
The Battering Incident: Forms and Context	3
The Epidemiology of Intimate Partner Violence	5
Intimate Partner Violence Committed by Men	5
Intimate Partner Violence Committed by Women	13
Comparisons Across U.S. Ethnic and Immigrant Groups	18
Assessing Partner Violence	20
Chapter 2. Theories of Causation	21
Societal Level Theories	21
Culture of Violence Theory	21
Ecological Theory	22
Evolutionary Theory	23
Feminist Theory	25
General Systems Theory	28
Social Disorganization Theory	29
The Individual/Couple Level	29
Biopsychosocial Perspective	29
Exchange Theory	31
Investment Theory	31
Resource Theory	32
Social Learning Theory	32
Theory of Marital Power	33
Traumatic Bonding Theory	34
Chapter 3. How Women and Men Define Experiences of Violence and Its Causes	37
Intimate Partner Violence: Puerto Ricans and Non-Hispanic Whites, Cuyahoga County	37
Background	37
Study Methods	42
Results	44
Women's Perceptions of Partner Violence, Romania	53
Background	53

Methods	55
Results	56
Discussion	59
Chapter 4. Violence As Deviance? The Societal Response	61
Intimate Partner Violence as Deviant Behavior	61
What Is Deviance?	61
A Synchronic View of Intimate Partner Violence	67
Theories of Causation	70
Responses to Deviance	77
Chapter 5. Responses of the Helping Professions	83
The Health Care Professions	83
Increasing Health Care Worker Awareness	83
Medical Protocols for the Identification and Treatment of Victims	87
Mandatory Reporting	90
Screening for Batterers	91
Social Models, Social Services, and Community Consortia	92
Ethical Issues	93
The Response of the Veterinary Profession	93
The Response of Clergy	94
Chapter 6. The Legal Response	97
The Criminal Justice Response	97
The Police Response	97
The Prosecutorial Response	105
Legislative Response	106
Judicial Response	108
Civil Proceedings	112
Restraining Orders	112
Divorce and Custody Proceedings	113
Tort Suits	114
The Response of United States Immigration Law	115
Self-Petitioning	115
Cancellation of Removal	116
Asylum	116
Chapter 7. Responses of the Batterer	119
The Account	119
Retaliation	123
Treatment	124

Chapter 8. Responses of the Battered	131
Departure	131
Help-Seeking	133
Barriers to Help-Seeking	134
Physical and Mental Health Care	135
Law Enforcement	136
The Clergy	137
Suicide	138
Violence	139
Isolation	140
Social Organization	140
Acceptance and Self-Blame/Remaining	141
 Chapter 9. Children Exposed to Partner Violence: Their Responses	 147
Children's Exposure to Parental/Caregiver Violence	147
The Child's Response	149
Responses to the Child Witness	151
Crisis and Mental Health Interventions	151
The Legal System	152
The Child Grows Up	153
 Chapter 10. Looking Towards the Future: Research, Prevention, and the Provision of Services	 155
Research	155
Assessing Violence	155
Prevention Efforts	157
The Provision of Services	160
Measuring Success	160
Registries	161
 Conclusion	 163
 References	 165
 Index	 193