

Contents

1. Introduction	1
2. Family Role and Identity Formation	11
3. Passivity and Failure of Identity Formation	29
4. Some Thoughts on Family Relationships in Contemporary Society	63
5. Family Interaction and the Sick Role	83
6. Childbirth, the Family, and Breakdown	91
7. An Approach to a Family Study of Childbirth	105
8. Observations on the Psychotherapy of Puerperal Breakdown	125
9. Puerperal Breakdown and Defensive Organisation	141
10. Dread of Envy as an Etiological Factor in Puerperal Breakdown	151
11. The Husband-Wife Relationship in Cases of Puerperal Breakdown	165
12. The Concept of Maternal Love	177
13. An Interpretation of Modern Obstetric Practice	189
14. Taboo and Illness	203
15. Psychoanalysis—Freudian or Existential	215
16. On Setting up a Psychotherapy Training Scheme	237
17. The Teaching of Psychotherapy	247
Index	257