

Contents

|                                            |   |
|--------------------------------------------|---|
| Introduction .....                  | 1 |
| Jan E. Stets and Jonathan H. Turner |   |
| References .....                           | 6 |

I. BASIC PROCESSES

|                                                                                                                          |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. The Classification of Emotions .....                                                                           | 11 |
| Robert A. Thamm                                                                                                   |    |
| Traditional Classification Approaches .....                                                                              | 11 |
| Contemporary Classification Systems .....                                                                                | 14 |
| Relevant Factors in Classifying Emotions .....                                                                           | 16 |
| Culture, Structure, and Appraisal .....                                                                                  | 16 |
| The Classification Scheme .....                                                                                          | 17 |
| "Classic" Construction of Emotion Categories .....                                                                       | 18 |
| Levels of Emotion Differentiation .....                                                                                  | 20 |
| Conclusions .....                                                                                                        | 34 |
| References .....                                                                                                         | 35 |
| 2. The Neuroscience of Emotions .....                                                                             | 38 |
| David D. Franks                                                                                                   |    |
| Why the Emotional Brain? .....                                                                                           | 39 |
| Sociology and the Neuroscience Divide .....                                                                              | 40 |
| Some Generalizations about the Emotional Brain .....                                                                     | 41 |
| The Functional Anatomy of Emotion in the Brain .....                                                                     | 42 |
| Top to Down Brain Structures .....                                                                                       | 45 |
| The Debate About the Limbic System .....                                                                                 | 49 |
| Neuroscience and Unconscious Emotion .....                                                                               | 51 |
| On the Relationship of Cognition and Emotion: The Interaction of Cognitiveand Emotional Processes in the Brain ..... | 55 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                                         | 59 |
| Notes .....                                                                                                              | 60 |
| References .....                                                                                                         | 60 |

|                                                                                     |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 3. Gender and Emotion .....                                                  | 63 |
| Stephanie A. Shields, Dallas N. Garner, Brooke Di Leone, and Alena M. Hadley |    |
| A Framework for Studying Gender and Emotion .....                                   | 65 |
| Beliefs About the Gender-Emotion Connection .....                                   | 68 |
| Power and Status .....                                                              | 71 |
| Sexuality .....                                                                     | 74 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                    | 78 |
| References .....                                                                    | 79 |

II. THEORIES

|                                                                          |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 4. Power and Status and the Power-Status Theory of Emotions ..... | 87  |
| Theodore D. Kemper                                                |     |
| Power and Status Theory .....                                            | 87  |
| Relational Metaprocesses .....                                           | 93  |
| The Power-Status Theory of Emotions .....                                | 96  |
| Tests of the Theory .....                                                | 108 |
| Research Agenda .....                                                    | 109 |
| Conclusion .....                                                         | 110 |
| Notes .....                                                              | 111 |
| References .....                                                         | 111 |
| 5. Cultural Theory and Emotions .....                             | 114 |
| Gretchen Peterson                                                 |     |
| Defining Emotions .....                                                  | 115 |
| The Self and Emotions .....                                              | 115 |
| Cultural Content .....                                                   | 116 |
| Empirical Work on Emotion Culture .....                                  | 118 |
| Variations in Emotion Culture .....                                      | 121 |
| Learning the Emotion Culture: Emotional Socialization .....              | 122 |
| Research on Emotional Socialization .....                                | 123 |
| Managing Emotions .....                                                  | 124 |
| Research on Emotion Management .....                                     | 126 |
| Commercialization of Emotion Management .....                            | 127 |
| Research on Emotional Labor .....                                        | 129 |
| Conclusion .....                                                         | 131 |
| Notes .....                                                              | 133 |
| References .....                                                         | 133 |
| 6. Ritual Theory .....                                            | 135 |
| Erika Summers-Effler                                              |     |
| The Interaction Order .....                                              | 136 |
| Interaction Order Dynamics .....                                         | 137 |
| Second-Order System Dynamics .....                                       | 140 |
| Thinking and the Self .....                                              | 141 |
| Network Processes .....                                                  | 146 |
| Small Groups .....                                                       | 147 |
| Constraints on the Interaction Order .....                               | 149 |

|                                                                                           |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Conclusion .....                                                                          | 152 |
| References .....                                                                          | 153 |
| 7. Symbolic Interactionism, Inequality, and Emotions .....                         | 155 |
| Jessica Fields, Martha Copp, and Sherryl Kleinman                                  |     |
| Theoretical Framings and Foundations .....                                                | 156 |
| Linking the Emotional and the Social .....                                                | 158 |
| Everyday Emotional Practices and Contexts .....                                           | 159 |
| Who We Are, How We Feel: Emotions, Identity, and Beliefs .....                            | 164 |
| Emotion, Ideology, and Sustained Social Inequalities .....                                | 168 |
| Methodological Perspectives for Interactionist Studies of Emotion .....                   | 173 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                          | 174 |
| References .....                                                                          | 175 |
| 8. Affect Control Theory .....                                                     | 179 |
| Dawn T. Robinson, Lynn Smith-Lovin, and Allison K. Wisecup                         |     |
| Symbolic Interactionist Roots of Affect Control Theory .....                              | 180 |
| Definitions .....                                                                         | 181 |
| The Formal Structure of the Theory .....                                                  | 184 |
| Empirical Studies of Emotion Using Affect Control Theory .....                            | 191 |
| Emotions in Understanding Social Movements and Politics .....                             | 193 |
| A Brief Comparison with a Close Theoretical Cousin .....                                  | 196 |
| Directions for Future Research .....                                                      | 198 |
| Notes .....                                                                               | 199 |
| References .....                                                                          | 199 |
| 9. Identity Theory and Emotions .....                                              | 203 |
| Jan E. Stets                                                                       |     |
| Identity Theory and Research .....                                                        | 204 |
| Future Research .....                                                                     | 220 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                          | 221 |
| Notes .....                                                                               | 222 |
| References .....                                                                          | 222 |
| 10. Self Theory and Emotions .....                                                 | 224 |
| Howard B. Kaplan                                                                   |     |
| Self Theory as an Integrative Framework for the Sociology of Emotions .....               | 224 |
| Emotions as Self-Referent Responses .....                                                 | 229 |
| Emotional Experiences/Expressions as Self-Cognitive Stimuli forSelf-Evaluation .....  | 230 |
| Emotional (Self-Feeling) Responses to Self-Cognition-StimulatedSelf-Evaluations ..... | 232 |
| Emotions and Self-Enhancing/Self-Protective Responses .....                               | 241 |
| Emotional Responses as Self-Enhancing/Self-Protective Mechanisms .....                    | 244 |
| Self-Enhancing/Self-Protective Mechanisms and Self-Feelings (Emotion) .....               | 245 |
| Retrospect and Prospect .....                                                             | 247 |
| References .....                                                                          | 249 |

|                                                                                                               |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 11. Emotion-Based Self Theory .....                                                                    | 254 |
| David Boyns                                                                                            |     |
| Sociological Approaches to the Self .....                                                                     | 255 |
| Locating the Emotion-Based Self in the Sociology of Emotions .....                                            | 258 |
| Conclusion and Future Directions .....                                                                        | 271 |
| References .....                                                                                              | 272 |
| 12. Psychoanalytic Sociological Theories and Emotion .....                                             | 276 |
| Jonathan H. Turner                                                                                     |     |
| Freud's Theory in a More Sociological Guise .....                                                             | 276 |
| Redirection of Psychoanalytic Theory and Research .....                                                       | 279 |
| Sociological Theories of Pride and Shame .....                                                                | 280 |
| Expanding the Theory of Emotions: A New Kind of Synthesis BetweenSociology and Psychoanalytic Ideas ..... | 281 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                              | 292 |
| References .....                                                                                              | 293 |
| 13. Social Exchange Theory of Emotions .....                                                           | 295 |
| Edward J. Lawler and Shane R. Thye                                                                     |     |
| The Problem .....                                                                                             | 296 |
| Social Exchange Theories: Background .....                                                                    | 298 |
| Emotion and Emotional Processes .....                                                                         | 301 |
| Relational Cohesion Theory .....                                                                              | 305 |
| Extensions of Relational Cohesion Theory .....                                                                | 308 |
| Affect Theory of Social Exchange .....                                                                        | 311 |
| Conclusion and Future Directions .....                                                                        | 316 |
| References .....                                                                                              | 318 |
| 14. Emotion in Justice Processes .....                                                                 | 321 |
| Guillermina Jasso                                                                                      |     |
| Justice Analysis: Understanding the Operation of the Sense of Justice .....                                   | 322 |
| A Closer Look at the Justice Evaluation Function .....                                                        | 327 |
| The Long Reach of Justice: Theoretical Justice Analysis .....                                                 | 331 |
| Emotion in Justice Processes: Basic Framework and New Extensions .....                                        | 332 |
| A New Extension: Impartiality in the Justice Process .....                                                    | 334 |
| Empirical Assessment of Impartiality .....                                                                    | 339 |
| Emotion in a New Unified Theory of Sociobehavioral Processes .....                                            | 341 |
| Appendix .....                                                                                                | 343 |
| Notes .....                                                                                                   | 344 |
| References .....                                                                                              | 344 |
| 15. Expectation States Theory and Emotions .....                                                       | 347 |
| Cecilia L. Ridgeway                                                                                    |     |
| Early Studies of Status and Affect .....                                                                      | 348 |
| Expectation States Theory .....                                                                               | 349 |
| Is Affect Inherent in Status Processes? .....                                                                 | 351 |
| Cultural Schemas of Status and Emotion .....                                                                  | 353 |
| Legitimacy Dynamics, Emotions, and the Containment of Conflict .....                                          | 355 |

|                                                    |     |
|----------------------------------------------------|-----|
| How Do Emotions and Sentiments Shape Status? ..... | 358 |
| Feeling with the Group and Solidarity .....        | 364 |
| Conclusion .....                                   | 364 |
| References .....                                   | 365 |

|                                                   |     |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 16. Evolutionary Theory and Emotions ..... | 368 |
| Michael Hammond                            |     |
| Evolutionary Existentialism .....                 | 369 |
| The Evolutionary Biology of Emotions .....        | 370 |
| Emotions and Social Evolution .....               | 375 |
| Conclusion .....                                  | 384 |
| References .....                                  | 384 |

III. SELECT EMOTIONS

|                                                                       |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 17. Love .....                                                 | 389 |
| Diane H. Felmlee and Susan Sprecher                            |     |
| Is Love an Emotion? .....                                             | 390 |
| Classic Psychological Approaches to Love .....                        | 393 |
| Sociological Perspectives on Love .....                               | 397 |
| The Future of Scholarship on Love .....                               | 401 |
| Conclusion .....                                                      | 405 |
| References .....                                                      | 406 |
| 18. Jealousy and Envy .....                                    | 410 |
| Gordon Clanton                                                 |     |
| Recognizing Jealousy and Envy .....                                   | 411 |
| Jealousy .....                                                        | 412 |
| Envy .....                                                            | 424 |
| Conclusion .....                                                      | 439 |
| References .....                                                      | 440 |
| 19. Empathy .....                                              | 443 |
| Mark H. Davis                                                  |     |
| Empathy: An Organizational Framework .....                            | 444 |
| Research Evidence Relevant to the Model .....                         | 447 |
| Future Directions .....                                               | 460 |
| Conclusion .....                                                      | 462 |
| References .....                                                      | 462 |
| 20. Sympathy .....                                             | 467 |
| Christopher S. Schmitt and Candace Clark                       |     |
| Sympathy Conceptualized .....                                         | 469 |
| Dimes of Sympathy: Emotional Gifts, Exchange, and Micropolitics ..... | 474 |
| Courtroom Trials .....                                                | 481 |
| Communities of Sympathy .....                                         | 484 |
| Conclusion .....                                                      | 485 |

|                                                                                                            |            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Notes .....                                                                                                | 487        |
| References .....                                                                                           | 487        |
| 21. Anger .....                                                                                     | 493 |
| Scott Schieman                                                                                      |            |
| Conceptualization of Anger .....                                                                           | 494        |
| Social Causes of Anger Processes .....                                                                     | 495        |
| The Social Distribution of Anger .....                                                                     | 503        |
| Power, the Sense of Control, and the Utility of Anger .....                                                | 507        |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                           | 509        |
| References .....                                                                                           | 510        |
| 22. Grief .....                                                                                     | 516 |
| Kathy Charmaz and Melinda J. Milligan                                                               |            |
| Positioning the Literature on Grief .....                                                                  | 517        |
| What Is Grief? .....                                                                                       | 518        |
| Psychological Theorizing: Attachment and Identification .....                                              | 520        |
| Historical and Cross-Cultural Studies: Evidence for the Social andCultural Construction of Grief ..... | 521        |
| Emotions and Social Movements: The Place of Grief .....                                                    | 523        |
| Situating Grief in Social Structure .....                                                                  | 525        |
| Reconceptualizing Grief .....                                                                              | 529        |
| Loss of Self .....                                                                                         | 532        |
| Research on Variations in the Experience of Grief .....                                                    | 534        |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                           | 537        |
| Notes .....                                                                                                | 538        |
| References .....                                                                                           | 538        |
| 23. Moral Emotions .....                                                                            | 544 |
| Jonathan H. Turner and Jan E. Stets                                                                 |            |
| What Is Morality? .....                                                                                    | 544        |
| A Biology of Morality? .....                                                                               | 546        |
| The Moral Self .....                                                                                       | 548        |
| Social Structure and Moral Emotions .....                                                                  | 549        |
| Toward A Sociology of Moral Emotions .....                                                                 | 556        |
| The Psychodynamics of Moral Emotions .....                                                                 | 560        |
| Conclusion: Moral Emotions and the Moral Order .....                                                       | 564        |
| References .....                                                                                           | 565        |

IV. EMOTIONS IN SOCIAL LIFE

|                                            |            |
|--------------------------------------------|------------|
| 24. Emotions in the Workplace ..... | 569 |
| Kathryn J. Lively                   |            |
| The Managed Heart .....                    | 570        |
| Conclusion .....                           | 583        |
| Notes .....                                | 585        |
| References .....                           | 586        |

|                                                                                                           |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 25. Emotions and Health .....                                                                      | 591 |
| Linda E. Francis                                                                                   |     |
| The Sociology of Emotions and Health .....                                                                | 592 |
| The Division: Biomedical Positivism and Social Constructionism inResearch on Emotions and Health..... | 595 |
| Bridging the Gap: Stress and Interactionism .....                                                         | 600 |
| Discussion.....                                                                                           | 604 |
| Conclusion.....                                                                                           | 605 |
| References .....                                                                                          | 606 |
| 26. Emotions and Social Movements .....                                                        | 611 |
| Jeff Goodwin and James M. Jasper                                                                   |     |
| Fearing Emotions: A Brief History.....                                                                    | 612 |
| Rediscovering Emotions: Recent Research.....                                                              | 617 |
| Theorizing Emotions: Engaging Broader Theories.....                                                       | 624 |
| Conclusion.....                                                                                           | 630 |
| References .....                                                                                          | 631 |
| Index .....                                                                                    | 637 |