

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. THE GENERAL BACKGROUND	9
2. THE LABOUR MARKET BACKGROUND	13
1. Denmark	13
Geography, demography and economic development	13
Government and the social partners	13
Employment	14
Industrial relations, wages and labour turnover	15
Unemployment	16
Labour market and social policies	18
2. Finland	20
Geography, demography and economic development	20
Government and the social partners	21
Employment	22
Industrial relations, wages and labour turnover	22
Unemployment	24
Labour market and social policies	25
3. Italy	26
Geography, demography and economic development	26
Government and the social partners	27
Employment	29
Industrial relations, wages and labour turnover	30
Unemployment	32
Labour market and social policies	33
3. STRUCTURE, MANAGEMENT AND MAIN FUNCTIONS OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT SERVICE	37
1. Actors in labour market policy	37
Denmark	37
Finland	40
Italy	42
Tripartite advisory and managing bodies	44

2.	PES involvement in administering benefits and active labour market measures	46
	Introduction	46
	PES and benefit administration	46
	PES and active labour market policies	48
3.	Structure, management and work methods	49
	Introduction	49
	Internal organisation of the public employment service	50
	Decentralisation	51
	Management by results and performance targets	52
4.	Resources, staffing and work load	54
	Funding arrangements	54
	Staff status, numbers and work load	56
4.	THE BROKERAGE FUNCTION IN THE LABOUR MARKET	61
1.	Introduction	61
2.	Placement activities, counselling and self-service devices	62
	The legal framework for registration of job-seekers and vacancies	62
	The preselection of candidates	63
	Self-service placement devices	67
	General information and counselling services	70
	Placement of special categories of workers	72
3.	Encouraging availability for work during the unemployment spell	73
	Overview	73
	The nature and periodicity of contacts	74
	In-depth interview procedures	74
4.	The employment services of private agencies, unions and municipalities	77
	Commercial employment services	77
	Union employment services and job placement by municipalities	78
5.	Quantitative trends in job-seekers, vacancies and placement	79
	Alternative measures of unemployment	79
	Trends in registered job-seekers, vacancies and placements	82
6.	Labour market penetration and indicators of performance	85
	Labour market penetration: job-seekers and vacancies	85
	Measuring brokerage performance: placements and hiring	87
5.	UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS AND RELATED INCOME SUPPORT	93
1.	The importance of various income-replacement benefits	93
2.	Unemployment insurance and related benefits	98
	Unemployment insurance in Denmark and Finland	98
	Unemployment and lay-off benefits in Italy	99
	Eligibility and availability conditions applying to unemployment benefits	103
	Institutional arrangements for the management of benefits	105
	PES activity in checking availability for existing jobs	114
	Rights and obligations in relation to labour market measures	116

3.	Assistance benefits for unemployed people	118
	The State system of assistance benefits in Finland	118
	Social assistance from municipalities in Denmark and Finland	119
	Benefit financing, and municipal placement and job creation	120
	Social assistance benefits in Italy	120
4.	Early retirement pensions, labour market leave and invalidity benefits	121
	Labour market leave in Denmark	121
	Early retirement for labour market reasons	124
	Invalidity benefits	130
6.	EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING PROGRAMMES	133
1.	Introduction	133
2.	Overview	133
	Expenditure and stock indicators of programme size	133
	Entries to the main "active" programmes	135
3.	Subsidised employment for youth and adults	137
	Denmark and Finland	137
	Italy	144
4.	Formal training programmes	157
	Overview	157
	Training for the unemployed in Denmark and Finland	158
	Training for the unemployed in Italy	162
	Continuous training of employed workers in Denmark	163
7.	SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS	167
	The labour market background (Chapter 2)	167
	PES structure and management methods (Chapter 3)	168
	The brokerage function (Chapter 4)	170
	Unemployment and related benefits (Chapter 5)	173
	Active labour market programmes (Chapter 6)	179
	Final remarks	181
	NOTES	184
Annex A.	The History of the main unemployment benefits	197
Annex B.	The benefit treatment of short-time work, temporary lay-off and part-time work in Denmark and Finland	205
Annex C.	The regularisation of employment relationships	209
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	212