

Contents

Tables, Figures and Appendices	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
1. Between Chores and Dreams: Social Situation and Personal Expectations of Women in the Immediate Post-War Years	7
Women and the Modern World	7
Weimar Experiences	9
Post-War Challenges	12
The Place of Women in National Socialist Society	14
Nothing But Survival: Women in Occupied Germany	24
Women at Work in Occupied Germany	31
2. Equal Rights for Women: A Profile of Legislative Change	41
The Constitutional Promise	41
Wife, Mother or Partner?	46
Women at Work Between Special Protection and Equality	54
Between Motherhood and Employment	66
3. Family Life and Lifestyles	75
Families and the Role of Women	78
Attitudes and Expectations	86
4. Women in Education: Schools, Vocational Training and Universities	100
Educating Gretchen – Girls in the School System	102

Tables, Figures and Appendices

Tables

1.1	Marriage cohorts and family sizes	16
1.2	German and foreign labour in the war economy, 1939-44	22
2.1	Divorce in West Germany since 1950	52
2.2	Child-rearing: synopsis of the legal entitlements	71
3.1	Consumer durables in private households	86
3.2	Styles of upbringing in the parental home, 1955 and 1984	90
3.3	Issues of conflict between young people and their parents	91
3.4	Young people who never contributed to the housework	92
3.5	Attitudes to marriage and partnership among women aged 15-30	94
4.1	Women in advanced education (1965)	101
4.2	Educational participation of 13-year-olds	103
4.3	Participation in full-time education by age and gender, 1970-1980	108
4.4	Vocational education by age cohorts and gender	111
4.5	Secondary schooling and vocational education of West Germans in employment	112
4.6	Vocational training three years after leaving school	116
4.7	Girls in 'men's jobs', 1976-1986	120
4.8	Unemployment among men and women under the age of 25	122
4.9	Women at university, 1950-1988	129
4.10	Education and training today and tomorrow	131
4.11	Examination successes of women in higher education, 1973-1984	139
4.12	Students' reactions in case of unemployment	146

Tables, Figures and Appendices

XI	ASF Resolution: Women in the SPD (1986)	325
XII	Quota Regulations: the SPD Position	326
XIII	CDU Resolution on the Equality of Men and Women (1986)	329
XIV	CDU Guidelines on 'New Partnership' (Essener Leitsätze , 1985)	331