

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
Part I. The Frankfurt School Revisited
1 Between Proust and the Zohar : Walter Benjamin's Arcades Project	21
2 The Adorno Centennial: The Apotheosis of Negative Dialectics	45
3 What Is Heideggerian Marxism?	61
4 Critical Reflections on Marcuse's Theory of Revolution	81
5 The Lion in Winter: Leo Lowenthal and the Integrity of the Intellectual	95
6 Levinas and Heidegger: The Anxiety of Influence	111
7 Karl Jaspers: The Paradoxes of Mandarin Humanism	133
Part II. Exiting Revolution
8 What We Can Learn from the Revolutions of 1989	153
9 From the "Death of Man" to Human Rights: The Paradigm Change in French Intellectual Life, 1968–86	171

10	The Republican Revival: Reflections on French Singularity	185
	Postscript Hexagon Fever	201
11	What Is Global Democracy?	211
12	Religion and Public Reason: A Contemporary Debate	227
13	The Disoriented Left: A Critique of Left Schmittianism	243
14	Kant at Ground Zero: Philosophers Respond to September 11	253
	Notes	269
	Index	295