

Contents

Preface		9
Foreword		11
	Thomas A. Brady, Jr. Peder Sather Professor of Early Modern European History, University of California – Berkeley
Introduction		15
Chapter One	Erinnerungen aus meinem Leben: Biedermeier Idyll	21
	Childhood and Family	23
	The Prosna Meadow	34
	Adolescence and Gymnasium	39
	University and Graduate Study	43
	The Young Privatdozent	49
	First Forays into Politics	50
	Military Experience	55
	Youthful Liberalism	58
Chapter Two	Soll Und Haben: The Merchant As Hero	65
	The Plot of the Novel	67
	Narrative Structure	70
	Programmatic Realism	74
	Soll und Haben as Social Novel	83
	Aristocrat and Bourgeois	86
	Theodor Molinari: The Model for Herr Schröter?	99
	Poland and the German Civilizing Mission	102
Chapter Three	Gustav Freytag, Soll und Haben , and the Liberal Critique of the Jews	109

	Anton Wohlfart and Veitel Itzig	111
	Capitalism and Character	116
	Capitalism as Temptation	119
	The Liberal Critique of the Jew: “Die Juden in Breslau”	124
	Freytag contra Wagner: The Defense of Assimilation	134
	The Silent Defender of Assimilation	144
Chapter Four	Die verlorene Handschrift : The Historian As Hero	151
	Gustav Freytag and the Prussian School of History	154
	The Background to Die verlorene Handschrift	159
	Professor Felix Werner: The Historian as Hero	163
	Bildung and Tüchtigkeit	166
	Bourgeois Pride Versus Aristocratic Honor “Caesarian Insanity”	171
		174
Chapter Five	Kulturgeschichte And Kulturprotestantismus: The Case Of “Doktor Luther”	185
	“Historical Mania” and Kulturgeschichte	186
	The Kitzing Circle	191
	Popular History and the Novel	194
	Kulturgeschichte	199
	Freytag’s Methodology in the Bilder	201
	Martin Luther	210
	A Luther for the Nineteenth-Century?	215
	Luther as National Liberal	222
	From Luther to Lutheranism	226
Chapter Six	The Prussian Gospel, Part I: The Thirty Years’ War	233
	Kulturgeschichte and Military History	241
	Soldiers And Civilians In The Bilder	250

	The Landesknechte	258
	Gustavus Adolphus and the Prussian School	262
Chapter Seven	The Prussian Gospel, Part II: Frederick The Great	277
	The Prussian State and Individual Liberty	279
	The Prussian Royal Prussian Officer Corps and Civil Society	290
	Frederick the Great	294
	The Civilizing Mission of the Prussian State	304
Chapter Eight	Gustav Freytag, The Bilder aus der deutschen Vergangenheit , and the Reich	313
	Political Disappointments	319
	The End of the Kirzing Circle	321
	The Hermit of Siebleben	324
	The Landwehr and the Zenith of Historical Optimism	327
	The Culmination of German History	335
	Freytag and Otto von Bismarck	337
	Bibliography	347
	Index	357