

Table of Contents

Foreword	7
Nils Holger Petersen: Introduction	9
Claus Clüver: On Genres: Their Construction, Function, Transformation, and Transposition	27
 1. RITUAL AND CULTURE
Jesper Sørensen: Ritual as Action and Symbolic Expression	49
Katia Gvozdeva: Hobbyhorse Performances: A Ritual Attribute of Carnavalesque Traditions and its Literary Appropriation in Sottie Theatre	65
Christof L. Diedrichs: Desire for Viewing: A 'Deluge of Images' in the Middle Ages	87
Henrik v. Achen: 'The Passion Clock' – a Lutheran 'Way of the Cross': Reflections on a Popular Motif in Early Eighteenth- Century Scandinavian Religious Imagery	119
 2. NARRATIVE, GENRE, AND RITUAL
Richard Utz: Remembering Ritual Murder: The Anti-Semitic Blood Accusation Narrative in Medieval and Contemporary Cultural Memory	145
Biörn Tjällén: Ericus Olai's Chronica regni Gothorum : A Discourse on Dominance	163
Siglind Bruhn: Rituals and Genres in a Twentieth-Century Operatic Portrayal of a Medieval Saint	173

Jørgen Bruhn: ‘Useful if Treated with Caution’: Carnevalization in Don Quijote 187

3. MUSICAL GENRES

Heinrich W. Schwab: The Phenomenon of Concert Applause:
Interactions between Institution, Ritual, and Musical Genre . . . 211

Lars Berglund: The Aria, the Stylus Melismaticus, and the Holy Communion 251

Magnar Breivik: Weill and Brecht’s Das Berliner Requiem:
A Secular Work in a Sacred Tradition 271

4. SECULAR RITUAL

Eyolf Østrem: ‘Going Through All These Things Twice’:
The Ritual of a Bob Dylan Concert 293

Nils Holger Petersen: Music Practices around Bob Dylan,
Medieval Rituals, and Modernity 321

INDEX OF AUTHORS 331