

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Preface  | vii |
| Klaus L. BerghahnComedy without Laughter: Jewish Characters in Comediesfrom Shylock to Nathan                                   | 3   |
| Burghard DednerSatire Prohibited: Laughter, Satire, and Ironyin Thomas Mann's Oeuvre  | 27  |
| Egon SchwarzThalia in Austria  | 41  |
| Friedemann Weidauer, Alan Lareau, and Helen Morris-KeitelThe Politics of Laughter: Problems of Humor and Satirein the FRG Today | 56  |
| Christopher J. WickhamDoolsummsä and Berchbläidl: Laughter and Fitzgerald Kusz'sDemocratization of Poetry through Dialect       | 79  |
| Irving SaposnikThe Yiddish Are Coming! The Yiddish Are Coming!Some Thoughts on Yiddish Comedy                                   | 99  |
| Steven Paul Scher"Tutto nel mondo è burla": Humor in Music?  | 106 |