

Contents

Dedication	5
Acknowledgements	7
1. The Antifascist Front	11
1.1. Born to Dissent	11
1.2. Das andere Deutschland and Its Exiles	13
1.3. Based on a Revolutionary Tradition	16
1.4. Good Versus Evil	18
2. Let Us Broaden Our Minds: Deutsches Volksecho and Its Mission	21
2.1. The International Counterpublic of Exiles	21
2.2. Deutsches Volksecho at the Intersection of Information, Discussion, and Action	23
2.3. Heym Versus Sectarian Interests	28
2.4. Law Enforcement Versus Public Indignation: Not Taking Revenge Can Be a Form of Revenge	33
3. In the American Grain	41
3.1. Grassroots Americanism: A Defense of Democracy at Home	41
3.2. A New Voice is Heard in the Public	47
3.3. We Lose Face in Spain and It Comes Back to Haunt Us	50
4. Peace Is Not the Absence of War. Peace Is a Virtue, an Attitude of Mind, an Inclination toward Benevolence, Trust and Justice	61
4.1. The Ideological Crossword Puzzle in Hostages	61
4.2. Collaborate and Die	64
4.3. Amoral Application of Science: Where Does It Lead?	68
4.4. The Misuse of Art	72
4.5. The Pleasure and Dignity of Consciousness-Raising	74
4.6. Telling Truth to Power: The Intellectual of His People	78
4.7. A Gleam of Hope as the Populace Awakes	82

5. Waging Peace, Fighting Disease, Building Hope	91
5.1. There Is No Way to Democracy, Democracy Is the Way	91
5.2. The Failure of Intellectuals	94
5.3. In Support of the War of Ideas	97
5.4. Initiation into Democratic Adulthood	101
6. Democracy Defended at Home	107
6.1. It Can Happen Here	107
6.2. The Conspiracy of Power	111
6.3. The Silenced Untouchables	114
6.4. The Inception of a Common Language	115
6.5. The Miners Find Their Voice	116
6.6. Democracy Is No Vacation	118
6.7. The Intellectual and McCarthy	121
7. And the Dream Continues	127
Bibliography	133
Index	147