

Contents

List of Illustrations	viii
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction: “Nuremberg”	1
1: A Small Town in Germany	13
2: The Capital of Nostalgia	32
3: Metropolitan Monument	94
4: Empire of Longing	131
5: Representing Rapture	176
6: Nuremberg Goes Global	220
Conclusion: Ab Urbe ad Orbem	290
Works Cited	311
Index	331

Illustrations

Konrad Schreiber and Theodor Rothbarth, Nürnberg, circa 1850	xii
View of Nuremberg in Hartmann Schedel's world chronicle of 1493	12
Hans Sachs in 1545 at the age of 51	21
Albrecht Dürer, self-portrait, age 26, 1498	24
The monument for Albrecht Dürer, unveiled in 1840	49
Ludwig Emil Grimm, morning celebration at Dürer's grave, Easter Sunday, 6 April 1828	50
Hans von und zu Aufseß at the age of 63 wearing a knight's armor and carrying a crossbow made around 1650	65
The Sängerschaft in Nuremberg, 1861	75
Gustav Singer's set design for the final scene of the third act of Wagner's Die Meistersinger von Nürnberg	97
Hans Sachs monument, 1909	113
Albrecht Dürer, Knight, Death, and Devil	144
The Nazis march through the old town of Nuremberg, 1933	150
Postcard of the Reich party rally grounds	151
Commemoration of the dead, Luitpoldarena, 1934	155
The "cathedral of light"	158
Hitler during the "consecration" of the flags, 1929	160
Poster for the exhibition "Nürnberg, die deutsche Stadt" (Nuremberg, the German City)	177
A Hitler Youth boy as Riefenstahl wanted Hitler Youth boys to be seen in her film Triumph des Willens	195
Riefenstahl coaching a Hitler Youth boy to look better for her camera	196

Adolf Hitler and Ernst Röhm after laying down a wreath at the memorial for the dead, 1933	197
Harold L. Hershey, attached to the Seventh Army, using a comb as a mustache and giving his impression of Adolf Hitler making a speech on the Zeppelin tribune in Nuremberg	221
Streets near the castle in Nuremberg (1946)	226
Business signs in the rubble near the main train station (April 1948)	229
Albrecht Dürer, Melancholia	243
The courtroom in Nuremberg	246
World congress of Jehovahs Witnesses at the Zeppelin field (August 1953)	258
Motor sport event around the Zeppelin tribune (mid 1950s)	259
View of the Straße der Menschenrechte (Street of Human Rights)	263
Dokumentationszentrum (Documentation Center) by Mile Cindric	274
Dokumentationszentrum (Documentation Center) by Heiko Stahl	274
On Schütt island in the middle of the Pegnitz	291
Erhard Etzlaub: Map of Germany and Europe, 1501	293