Contents

Foreword About the author Acknowledgements Introduction		i) X Xii XI
			1	The strategic issues: an overview	1
			2	Towards the academic digital library: the role of the
				Joint Information Systems Committee	23
3	What users want	43
4	Case study: modernising Oxford's libraries for the
	new millennium	57
5	Innovation, cooperation, integration: the defining
	influence of the eLib programme	73
6	Working together for strategic advantage: research
	library consortia in the digital age	91
7	The past, present and future of the book	113
8	Case study: library fundraising in Oxford	129
9	Scholarly communications and the research library
	in the digital world	147
10	The digital data deluge: the challenge of e-Science	169
11	Overcoming transience: digital preservation for the long-term future	185
12	Case study: the Bodlelan Library from Gutenberg to
	Google	203
Index		223			