

Contents

Introduction	vii
Abbreviations	xi
REINHOLD GRIMM
“The Ice Age Cometh”: A Motif in Modern German Literature (Translated by WILLIAM BRUCE ARMSTRONG)	1
PETER DEMETZ
Günter Grass in Search of a Literary Theory	19
RUPRECHT WIMMER
“I, Down Through the Ages”: Reflections on the Poetics of Günter Grass (Translated by SUSAN C. ANDERSON)	25
JUDITH RYAN
Beyond The Flounder : Narrative Dialectic in The Meeting at Telgte	39
GERTRUD BAUER PICKAR
The Prismatic Narrator: Postulate and Practice	55
HELMUT KOOPMANN
Between Stone Age and Present or The Simultaneity of the Nonsimultaneous: The Time Structure (Translated by STEVEN JOYCE and MONIKA PITTL)	75
EDWARD DILLER
Raw and Cooked, Myth and Märchen	91
SCOTT H. ABBOTT
The Raw and the Cooked: Claude Lévi-Strauss and Günter Grass	107

WINNIFRED R. ADOLPH
The Truth Told Differently: Myth and Irony	121
OTTO F. BEST
On the Art of Garnishing a Flounder with "Chestnuts" and Serving It up as Myth	135
(Translated by ALBERT E. GURGANUS)
ERHARD FRIEDRICHSMEYER
The Swan Song of a Male Chauvinist	151
SIEGFRIED MEWS
The "Professorial" Flounder: Reflections on Grass's Use of Literary History	163
SIGRID MAYER
The Critical Reception of The Flounder in the United States: Epic and Graphic Aspects	179
Appendices
Structural Diagram of The Flounder	198
German-English Concordances
The Flounder	200
The Meeting at Telgte	207
Bibliography	209
Index	219