

INTRODUCTION	1
I. DEFINING THE MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVE	6
Point of View Theory	7
Theory on Multiple Point of View	25
The first-person narrative	26
Third-person narrative	28
The Multiple Perspective	31
Comparison of the Multiple Perspective in First-person and Third-person Narration	32
II. MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVE IN THIRD-PERSON NARRATIVES. RAABE'S BRAUNSCHWEIG WORKS	34
I. Structural Devices	35
A. Humor and Irony	35
1. Specific Irony	36
2. General Irony	37
3. Humor	38
B. Symbol	40
C. Quotations	42
1. Literary quotations	42
2. Non-fictional documents	44
3. Self-quotation	46
D. Time	47
E. Space	49
II. Narrative Devices	51
A. Narrator	52
1. Romantic Irony	52
a. Play with "omniscient" narration	53
b. Reflection on narrative technique	54
c. Ironic treatment of the reader's expectations	55
d. Reader as part of work	56
e. Narrator in characters' world	57
f. Parody	58
2. Narration	61
a. Exposition	61
b. Narrative reflection	63
c. Corrective comment	65

B. Characters	66
1. Erlebte Rede	66
2. Monologue	68
a. Reflective monologue	68
b. Reportorial monologue	68
3. Dialogue	69
4. Character quotes character	70
5. Letters	71

III. RELATIVITY IN THREE BRAUNSCHWEIG WORKS	77
Der Dräumling	77
Das Horn von Wanza	92
Kloster Lugau	116

CONCLUSION	138
------------	-----

BIBLIOGRAPHY	141
--------------	-----