

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	9
Introduction by the Editor	11
PART ONE: Self-Awareness and the Changing Patterns of Rhetoric
Learning to Behold the Fox: Poetics and Epistemology in Chaucer's Nun's Priest's Tale Peter W. Travis	30
Post-Feudal Rhetoric and Historical Semiotics Thomas M. Greene	46
"My Selfe, the Hardest Object of the Sight": The Problem of Personal Identity in John Donne's Poetry Wolfgang G. Müller	57
Milton's Grim Laughter and Second Choices Edward W. Tayler	72
Epistemology and Poetry in the Mid-Eighteenth Century Eric Rothstein	94
PART TWO: The Emergence of Proto-Modernism
"That Horrible Throbbing": Counterpoint of Theme and Artifice in Poe's Poetry Katrina E. Bachinger	112

Walt Whitman: The Poet as Modernist
Régis Durand	125
Emily Dickinson's Aesthetics of Process
Roland Hagenbüchle	135
"Likeness Tempered by Difference": Parallelism in Gerard Manley Hopkins's Poetry and Poetics
Hans-Werner Ludwig	148
Tradition as Debris and the Debris of Tradition in the Poetry of Robert Browning
Valentine Cunningham	168
 PART THREE:
Types and Patterns of the Modernist Poem
Conrad Aiken's Metapoetics: The Example of The Preludes
Helen Hagenbüchle	184
Imitative Form: The Modernist Poem on the Page
Max Nännny	213
Expression in Color: The Theory of Wassily Kandinsky and the Poetry of William Carlos Williams
Peter Halter	232
The "True Subject" and the "Poetry of the Subject": Wallace Stevens's Epistemology of Form
George S. Lensing	249
Measures of Attention: On the Grammetrics of Lineation in William Carlos Williams' Poetry
Enikő Bollobás	262
"The Waste Land": A Menippean Satire?
Max Nännny	278

PART FOUR:
Disrupted Tradition and the Search for Coherence

"Struggles of Entanglement with Incoherent Roots": Epistemological Processes in the Poetry of Geoffrey Hill
Günther Blaicher 294

Poetic Aetiology in Three Poems by Charles Tomlinson, Geoffrey Hill, and Ted Hughes
Rainer Lengeler 310

In Search of Primordial Knowledge: Robert Duncan's Poetics
Bernd Engler 325

"Getting Rid of the Lyrical Interference": Charles Olson's Stance Towards Reality
Harald Mesch 336

Rage for Definition: The Long Poem as "Sequence"
Klaus Martens 350

PART FIVE:
Poetry and the Language of Criticism

The Language of Poetry and the Language of Criticism: Keats's "La Belle Dame Sans Merci" and the Modern Reader
Joseph T. Swann 368

Tennyson's Strategies of Presence and the Idea of Literature
Alan Sinfield 382

Catachresis, Prosopopoeia, and the Pathetic Fallacy: The Rhetoric of Ruskin
J. Hillis Miller 398

The Listening Voice of R.P. Blackmur: Towards a Definition of the Self in Poetry and Criticism
Oliver Rehlinger 408

Epilogue

The Poet as Myth-Maker and Shaman

Elémire Zolla

424

Notes on Contributors

435