

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	9
-------------------	---

PART ONE: INTRODUCTION

I.	DILTHEY AND HIS INFLUENCE	19
	1. The Purpose of this Study	19
	2. Dilthey's Contribution to Modern and Contemporary Intellectual Movements	20
	3. The Philosophical Studies in their Relationship to Existential Ontology (Heidegger) and Phenomenology (Husserl)	24
	4. The Importance of the Philosophical Writings for an Understanding of Dilthey's Intentions	28
	5. Dilthey's Influence outside the German-speaking Sphere	29
II.	DILTHEY AND LITERARY SCHOLARSHIP	33
	1. His Followers. Their Adaptation of Three Concepts: "Spirit of the Times" (Zeitgeist), "World-View" (Weltanschauung), and "Inner Experience" (Erlebnis)	33
	2. Dilthey's Critics (Viëtor, Kayser, Wellek, and Staiger)	38
	3. Difficulties in appraising the Theory of Literature. Ways and Methods of the Present Study	41
	4. Dilthey's Literary Interests to the Time of the Poetik	47

PART TWO

III.	DILTHEY'S PLEA FOR AN AESTHETIC THEORY TO ACCOUNT FOR THE NEW TENDENCIES OF THE AGE . . .	51
	1. The Rise of Modernism in the Arts and in Literature	51
	2. The Need for a New Aesthetic Theory	54
IV.	CRITIQUE OF THREE PREVIOUS APPROACHES TO AESTHETIC THEORY	58
	1. The Rationalist Theory	58
	2. The Method of the Analysis of Aesthetic Impressions and the Assumptions of Scientific Psychology	61
	3. The Aesthetic Theory of German Classicism and Romanticism	67
	(A) History and Criticism. Aesthetic Theory as a Living Body of Thought	67
	(B) Aristotelianism in Aesthetics and Its Decline	69
	(C) The Three Major Achievements of Classical German Aesthetics	72
V.	THE DUAL NATURE OF DILTHEY'S APPROACH	79
	1. The Difficulties involved in the So-called "Intrinsic Approach" to Literature	79
	2. Literary Theory as Part of the Human Studies	81
	3. Dilthey's Transcendental Historicism. Poetic Theory as a Basis for solving the Historicist Dilemma	86
	4. Tools from Other Disciplines. Transformation of Scientific Methodology into a New Kind of Analysis to account for the Creations of the Human Mind	89

PART THREE

VI.	ART AND EXPERIENCE. BASIC CHARACTERISTICS OF LITERATURE AND POETIC MIND	97
	1. The Starting Point of Dilthey's Analysis. A Common Basis of Experience shared by the Artist with all Other Men	97

2. Preliminary Characterization of the Function and Nature of Art and Literature	98
3. The Mental Constitution of the Poet. Traits which distinguish the Poet from Other Men. The Creative Imagination	101
4. The Poetic Imagination, Dream, and Insanity	104

VII. THE ONTO-PSYCHOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS OF ART AND LITERATURE 106

1. The Structure or Gestalt of the Psychic Life as a Regulative Organ of Being-in-the-World	106
2. The Full Meaning of the Gestalt Concept	113
3. The Three Spheres of Formative Acts and their Relation to the Creative Process	114
4. The Stratification of Feelings and some Elementary Principles of Aesthetics	118
5. Dilthey does not limit the Function of Art to the Task of harmonizing Emotional Attitudes	126
6. The Acquired Mental Gestalt in Relation to Dream, Insanity, and Poetic Genius. The Creative Process as an Act of Humanization	129

VIII. THE NATURE OF LITERARY ART. ESSENCE AND TYPE 133

1. Image-Formation in the Creative Process	133
2. The Poet as representing the "Essential of an Actuality". Art as an Organ of comprehending the Human World	136
3. The Essential in Art and Literature as the "Significant"	138
4. Lived Experience (Erlebnis) and the Realization of the Significant in a Literary Work	140
5. Universality in Art — Essence represented as "Typicality" and "Type"	145
6. Understanding (Verstehen) and Typifying proceeding from a "Point of Impression". The Meaning of Articulation in Art and Literature	151

IX.	WORKS OF ART AND LITERATURE AS SYMBOLIC CREATIONS. THE LANGUAGE OF FORMS	156
	1. Universality in Art and Literature rests on the Use of Symbols and Symbolism	156
	2. The Notion of Symbol derived from Wilhelm von Humboldt's Philosophy of Language	157
	3. The Meaning of Symbolism	162
X.	THE LITERARY WORK: MODE OF BEING, CATEGORIES FOR ITS ANALYSIS. HISTORICITY OF POETIC TECHNIQUES	167
	1. Mode of Being of the Literary Work	167
	2. Categories of Literary Analysis	172
	3. The Historicity of Poetic Techniques	176
XI.	DILTHEY'S PLANS FOR REWRITING THE POETIK . CONCLUSION OF THE PRESENT STUDY	187
	1. Dilthey's Plans for rewriting the Poetik . The Task of examining the Late Philosophical Studies from the Point of View of his Literary Theory	187
	2. Conclusion of the Present Study	193
	APPENDIX: CHRONOLOGICAL LIST OF DILTHEY'S WRITINGS	197
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	204