

---

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
1 Youth, youth transitions and social policy	1
Part 1 Towards a framework for youth policy
2 The re-structuration of youth: the school-to-work transition	29
3 The re-structuration of youth: family structure and family relationships	57
4 Youth citizenship and its changing context	79
5 Youth and citizenship: the legal context of young people's rights	101
Part 2 Social policy and vulnerable youth
6 Young people in, and leaving, the public care	127
7 Young people with special needs and disabilities	149
8 Young people and careers involving crime	172
9 Beyond the underclass debate and towards a framework for youth policy into the twenty-first century	196
Appendix: Towards a paradigm of rights for young people	211
References	219
Author index	243
Subject index	244