

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi

Glossary of Terms and Organizations xv

Introduction i

1. Generation Gaps: Catholic Youth
Work and the Dialogue with the Past 15
 2. Where the Boys Are: Catholic Youth Groups and the Competition of Mass Entertainment and Modern Culture 48
 3. Where Have All the Young Girls Gone? 86
 4. Youth Work in the Industrial Heartland: The CAJ and Kolping in the Archdiocese of Cologne 121
 5. The Catholic Rural Youth Movement in the Rhineland and Lower Franconia 144
 6. A League of Their Own: The DJK
Civil War and the Collapse of Catholic Integralism 167
- Conclusion 187
- Notes 203
- Selected Bibliography 259
- Index 279

ILLUSTRATIONS & MAPS

Illustrations

- Monsignor Ludwig Wolker 23
- The Catholic youth movement 37
- Members of Die Schar 54
- The cover of a group digest 56
- A “musical week” for the girls of Paderborn 78
- Rock ‘n’ roll arrives in Catholic youth work 79
- Advertisement for “jazz and spirituals” 81
- Young singing girls follow their leader 92
- A new spirit of conviviality for young men and women 113
- Another Pentecost gathering 116
- Young Catholic women in a “school for brides and mothers” 119
- First major rally for Catholic youth in Würzburg 164
- A course for young athletic instructors
in Hardehausen 179

Maps

- Archdiocese of Cologne 123
- Diocese of Würzburg 147