

Contents

List of Tables	viii
Notes on the Contributors	ix

Part I: Introduction and Background

1. The Irregular Migration Dilemma: Keeping Control, Out of Control or Regaining Control? Franck Düvell	3
1. Introduction	3
2. The scope of the book	9
3. Acknowledgements	12
2. Irregular Migration: a Global, Historical and Economic Perspective Franck Düvell	14
1. Irregular immigrants in Europe	19
2. The concept of 'illegal immigration'	21
3. The political economy of irregular immigration	29
4. Research on irregular immigration in Europe	34

Part II: Case Studies

3. Irregular Immigration in Four European Union Member States Franck Düvell	43
4. Documented and Undocumented Immigrant Workers in the UK: Changing Environments and Shifting Strategies Franck Düvell and Bill Jordan	48
1. The political environment of the twenty-first century: from racial to economic considerations	48
2. Legal and illegal immigration in the UK	49
3. The case study: Polish and Indian immigrants in the UK	52
4. Comparison and conclusion	71

5. Managing Access to the German Labour Market: How Polish (Im)migrants Relate to German Opportunities and Restrictions Norbert Cyrus and Dita Vogel	75
1. Introduction	75
2. Background: migration from Poland to Germany	77
3. Managing access to the German labour markets	79
4. Conclusion: relating migrants' accounts to control policies	102
6. Polish and Albanian Workers in Italy: Between Legality and Undocumented Status Anna Triandafyllidou and Ankica Kosic	106
1. Introduction	106
2. Albanian and Polish migration to Italy	107
3. The case study	109
4. Findings	112
5. Conclusions	134
6. Acknowledgements	136
7. Albanian and Polish Undocumented Workers' Life-stories: Migration Paths, Tactics and Identities in Greece Iordanis Psimmenos and Koula Kassimati	138
1. Introduction	138
2. The meanings attached to social origin	139
3. Leaving the home-place: processes and meanings	140
4. Paths of entry for Albanian and Polish workers into Greece	149
5. 'Tactics' of stay in Greece	153
6. The work of the Albanian and Polish immigrant workforce	155
7. Concluding remarks	166

Part III: Analysis and Comparison

8. Undocumented Migration in Europe: a Comparative Perspective Franck Düvell	171
1. New migration, the emergence of new migration systems and perspectives	171
2. New migration typologies	173

3. Pathways into Europe: travelling, trafficking and human smuggling	175
4. Biographies and migration patterns	177
5. Immigration laws, and legal and social stratification	178
6. Social capital, networks and markets: relevance and meaning	181
7. Networks and subversion	184
8. Comparing documented and undocumented migrants	186
9. Unwanted side-effects of immigration restrictions	189
10. The case of the Netherlands and Spain	190
11. Summary: risk biographies of Europe's labouring nomads	194
9. Poles Apart: How Each EU Country Gets the Migrant Workers it Requires Bill Jordan	197
1. The demand for Polish migrant workers	199
2. Flexibility, mobility and the demand for migrant workers	202
3. Conclusions	205
10. Implicit and Explicit Concepts of Justice in Irregular Immigration Franck Düvell	209
1. Implicit issues of justice in immigration processes	210
2. Explicit issues of justice made by migrants	211
3. Social movements for justice in migration processes	219
4. Conclusion: a sense of injustice	219
Part IV: Conclusion
11. Reframing the Irregular Migration Dilemma Franck Düvell	223
1. Migration and conflict	224
2. Trends in contemporary migration policy	226
3. Five variables for reframing the migration dilemma	231
4. Towards a new approach in migration policy	238
Bibliography	244
Index	269

List of Tables

2.1	Irregular immigrants in Europe in millions (a selection)	17
2.2	Qualitative research on irregular immigrants in Europe	36
4.1	Main legal migration channels in the UK	50
4.2	Persons dealt with as illegal entrants in the UK	50
4.3	Poles, means of finding work in the UK	57
4.4	Poles, means of finding employment mentioned in the UK	63
4.5	Indians, means of finding employment mentioned in the UK	67
7.1	Processes and meanings attached to leaving home and migration	148
8.1	Immigration policies and immigration status	180