

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Table of contents	ix

Chapter 1

What this book says about metaphor, architects, and the assessment of building design	1
1. Introduction	1
2. A genre approach to metaphor	4

Chapter 2

Architectus Verborum. An introduction to architectural discourse	10
1. Rendering space: The multimodal quality of architectural texts	12
2. Thinking and talking about space: Metaphors architects live by	16
2.1. Metaphors from the natural sciences	18
2.2. Metaphors from linguistic description	19
2.3. Metaphors from spatial mechanics	20
3. This building is a fridge: The thinking eye of architects	22

Chapter 3

The cognitive and rhetorical dimensions of metaphor	27
1. What is metaphor? Defining metaphor	28
1.1. Interaction views	30
1.2. Comparison views	31
1.3. Experientialist views	32
1.3.1 Blending theory	37
2. What are metaphors for? The rhetorical dimension of metaphor	43
2.1. Ideational focus	44
2.2. Interpersonal focus	45
2.3. Textual focus	47

Chapter 4

Exploring metaphor in the building review genre	51
1. The building review	51
1.1. The rhetorical organization of building reviews	53
1.2. The building review versus other reviewing practices	59
1.2.1. Viewing or re-viewing?	60
1.2.2. Professional status	62
2. Building a text corpus for analysis	64

3.	Identifying metaphorical data in texts	67
4.	Classifying metaphor	74
4.1.	Metaphor taxonomies	75
4.2.	A proposal for classifying architectural metaphors	79
5.	Exploring metaphorical language in reviews	85

Chapter 5

Metaphorical language and its underlying schemas in architectural assessment

		90
1.	Turning space into a building: Process-focused metaphors	92
1.1.	Manipulating concrete, physical matter	92
1.1.1.	Weaving space: Textile metaphors	92
1.1.2.	Shaping space: Malleability metaphors	96
1.1.3.	Experimenting with space	99
1.2.	Combining abstract, non-physical matter	101
1.2.1.	ARCHITECTURE IS LANGUAGE	101
1.2.2.	ARCHITECTURE IS MUSIC	104
2.	Highlighting the functional, behavioral and aesthetic properties of buildings: Product-focused metaphors	107
2.1.	Organic metaphors	107
2.2.	Inorganic metaphors	111
2.3.	Motion metaphors	117
3.	Metaphor diversification in architectural discourse	123
3.1.	Buildings as containers	123
3.2.	Buildings as part-whole composites	128

Chapter 6

The linguistic realization of metaphor in architectural discourse

1.	Nominal realizations	136
1.1.	Noun heads	136
1.2.	Pre-modification patterns	140
1.3.	Post-modification patterns	146
1.4.	Subject complements	147
2.	Verbal realizations	149
2.1.	Motion constructions	150
3.	Adjectival realizations	163
3.1.	Visually motivated adjectives	164
3.1.1.	Noun-shaped suffixed compounds	164
3.1.2.	Noun-like derived adjectives	165
3.1.3.	Other suffixed adjectives	166
3.2.	Non-visually motivated adjectives	168
4.	Adverbial realizations	170
5.	Metaphorical clusters	171

Chapter 7

The contribution of figurative language to re-viewing space.....	175
1. Figurative language and description.....	176
1.1. Metaphor and spatial deixis.....	177
1.2. Figurative language in captions.....	181
2. Figurative language and evaluation.....	184
3. The angle of telling: Figurative language and authorial positioning.....	196
3.1. Looking properly.....	200
3.2. Thinking properly.....	213
3.3. Buttressing properly.....	217
4. Chapter summary.....	223

Chapter 8

Concluding remarks.....	229
Notes.....	233
References.....	241
Subject index.....	258