

Contents

List of contributors	xiv
Foreword	xxi
Preface	xxiv
Acknowledgements	xxv
1 Introduction: civil society, religion and global governance – the power and persuasiveness of civil society	1
HELEN JAMES
PART I
Human security and human rights	11
2 National security: proportionality, restraint and common sense	13
HON. JUSTICE MICHAEL KIRBY, AC CMG
3 Human security, identity politics and global governance: from freedom from fear to fear of freedoms	25
AMITAV ACHARYA
4 A transcivilisational perspective on global issues in the twenty-first century: a way to overcome Euro-America-centric discourses on world affairs in the twenty-first century	33
YASUAKI ONUMA

PART II

The politics of civil religion 49

- 5 The Anglican Church, the state and modern warfare 51
PHILIP TOWLE

- 6 Religion and the destruction of Aboriginal society:
the paradox of Australian indigenous civil societies 61
GORDON BRISCOE, AO

- 7 Church–state relations and civil society in former communist countries 72
ROBERT F. MILLER

PART III

The ethics of civil development 85

- 8 War and the role of religion in a global civil society 87
JOSEPH RUNZO

- 9 Citizenship as consumption or citizenship as agency?
The challenge for civil society in Latin America 100
PHILIP OXHORN

- 10 Corruption, institutions and transcultural interaction 130
SEUMAS MILLER

PART IV

Civil society and global governance: panacea or problematique? 147

- 11 Postsecular civil society 149
WAYNE HUDSON

- 12 Christian custom and the Church as structure in
'weak states' in Melanesia 158
BRONWEN DOUGLAS

- 13 Governance, civil society and economic development:
a view from the Pacific 175
RON DUNCAN

PART V

Cross-cultural perspectives on institutional development for civil society 187

- 14 Community development and globalisation 189
ISAGANI SERRANO

- 15 Confronting Burma/Myanmar's security dilemma:
an integrated approach to national and human security issues 202
ZAR NI

- 16 The place of religion in the Iranian fertility transition 213
PETER McDONALD AND MD JALAL ABBASI-SHAVAZI

- 17 Faith, NGOs and the politics of development in Bangladesh 219
BINA D'COSTA

PART VI

International civil society: prospects for enhancing human security 239

- 18 Contesting 'globalisation from above': international non-governmental organisations and the prospects for global social contract 241
BAOGANG HE AND HANNAH MURPHY

- 19 Kifaya as political culture: the Egyptian presidential election, 2005 277
JACKY ANGUS

- 20 Religious-based civil society and anti-corruption campaign: the Indonesian experience in the creation of good governance 288
AZYUMARDI AZRA

- 21 Conclusion: paradigms of a more civil society 300
HELEN JAMES

- Index* 308