

CONTENTS

ILLUSTRATIONS AND TABLES	/	ix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	/	xi
ABBREVIATIONS	/	xiii

Introduction: Opium's History in China
Timothy Brook and Bob Tadashi Wakabayashi	/ 1

PART ONE • THE INTERNATIONAL CONTEXT

1. Opium for China: The British Connection
Gregory Blue / 31
2. From Peril to Profit: Opium in Late-Edo to Meiji Eyes
Bob Tadashi Wakabayashi / 55

PART TWO • DISTRIBUTION AND CONSUMPTION

3. Drugs, Taxes, and Chinese Capitalism in Southeast Asia
Carl A. Trocki / 79
4. The Hong Kong Opium Revenue, 1845–1885
Christopher Munn / 105
5. Opium in Xinjiang and Beyond
David Bello / 127
6. Drug Operations by Resident Japanese in Tianjin
Motohiro Kobayashi / 152
7. Opium / Leisure / Shanghai: Urban Economies of Consumption
Alexander Des Forges / 167

PART THREE • CONTROL AND RESISTANCE

8. Opium and Modern Chinese State-Making
R. Bin Wong / 189
9. Opium and the State in Late-Qing Sichuan
Judith Wyman / 212
10. Poppies, Patriotism, and the Public Sphere: Nationalism and State Leadership in the Anti-Opium Crusade in Fujian, 1906–1916
Joyce A. Madancy / 228
11. The National Anti-Opium Association and the Guomindang State, 1924–1937
Edward R. Slack Jr. / 248
12. Opium Control versus Opium Suppression: The Origins of the 1935 Six-Year Plan to Eliminate Opium and Drugs
Alan Baumler / 270
13. The Responses of Opium Growers to Eradication Campaigns and the Poppy Tax, 1907–1949
Lucien Bianco / 292

PART FOUR • CRISIS AND RESOLUTION

14. Opium and Collaboration in Central China, 1938–1940
Timothy Brook / 323
15. An Opium Tug-of-War: Japan versus the Wang Jingwei Regime
Motohiro Kobayashi / 344
16. Resistance to Opium as a Social Evil in Wartime China
Mark S. Eykholt / 360
17. Nationalism, Identity, and State-Building: The Antidrug Crusade in the People's Republic, 1949–1952
Zhou Yongming / 380

BIBLIOGRAPHY / 405

CONTRIBUTORS / 431

INDEX / 433

ILLUSTRATIONS AND TABLES

ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Opium den in Guangzhou as depicted by Thomas Allom, 1843 / 9
2. Lower-class opium smokers in Sichuan, 1916 / 10
3. Upper-class opium smokers, 1902 / 11
4. Manchu woman smoking opium at home, 1910 / 12
5. Anti-opium cartoon associating addiction with prostitution, 1935 / 15
6. Poster depicting the descent of the opium smoker through addiction to execution / 16
7. Japanese depiction of Cantonese "braves" driving off foreign soldiers at Sanyuanli, 1849 / 63
8. "The Beijing Pillow of Dreams," published by Fukuzawa Yukichi in 1884 / 72
9. Cartoon of China carved up like a melon, published by Fukuzawa Yukichi in 1884 / 73
10. Nanchengxin, a high-class opium den in Shanghai, 1884 / 172
11. Poppy field in Chongqing, 1905 / 216
12. Poster produced for the National Anti-Opium Week, October 1926 / 254

13. Women's association anti-opium cartoon, October 1926 / 255
14. Anti-opium cartoon published by the National Anti-Opium Association, November 1928 / 259
15. Poster contrasting peasants who do and do not grow opium, 1928 / 304

TABLES

1. Estimated Percentages of Opium Users in China, 1909 / 194
2. Opium Production in China in piculs (dan), 1904 / 215
3. Cases of Peasant Resistance to Opium Eradication Campaigns, 1907-1949 / 296
4. Cases of Peasant Resistance to Opium Tax, 1896-1949 / 302
5. Amounts of Opium Distributed Monthly by the Central China Hongji Benevolent Society According to Official Reports, November 1938-March 1940 / 335
6. Monthly Opium Revenues in Two County Budgets, 1938-1939 / 339
7. Punishments Given to Arrested Drug Offenders in Nanjing, 1952 / 385
8. Drug Offenders Discovered in Major Administrative Regions, 1952 / 387
9. Numbers of Arrests and Executions in Major Areas, 1952 / 397