

CONTENTS

PREFACE	v
CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION
1. The Transformational Approach	1
2. The Paraphrase Relation	1
3. Paraphrase Grammars	4
4. Compositional Grammars	6
5. Substitution	7
6. Admission Conditions	9
7. Equivalence	11
8. Functional Notation	12
9. Summary	14
CHAPTER II: THE PARAPHRASE RELATION
1. The Study of the Paraphrase Relation	16
2. Collection of Data	16
3. Selection of Data	18
4. Generalization of the Paraphrastic Relationships	19
5. Systematization of the Paraphrase Relation	26
6. Summary	31
CHAPTER III: COMPOSITIONAL GRAMMARS
1. The Compositional Approach	32
2. A Simple Compositional Language: P	32
3. Compositional Grammars and the Co-Occurrence Problem	34
4. 'Projection Rules'	40
5. Summary	50
CHAPTER IV: SUBSTITUTION
1. The Substitution Concept	52
2. The Presence of Substitution	53
3. A Notation for Substitution	56
4. The Generality of Substitution	64

5. Operations and Transformations	69
6. Summary	74

CHAPTER V: ADMISSION AND EQUIVALENCE

1. Admission Conditions	75
2. Ordering of Transformations	78
3. A Recursive Definition and an Admission Condition	80
4. Equivalence	88
5. Summary	92

CHAPTER VI: FUNCTIONAL REPRESENTATION

1. Functional Notation	94
2. Functions and Transformations	97
3. Functions and Phonology: the Relative Clause	105
4. Summary	116

CHAPTER VII: THE STRUCTURE OF PARAPHRASE GRAMMARS

1. The Recursive Enumerability of the Transformation Relation	117
2. Elementary Transformations	129
3. Summary	133

APPENDIX: RECURSIVE ENUMERABILITY	134
-----------------------------------	-----

BIBLIOGRAPHY	143
--------------	-----

INDEX OF SUBJECTS	144
-------------------	-----