

Contents

Abbreviations	xv
---------------	----

---

Introduction	1
Police Reform: Contextual Drivers	4
Socio-cultural restructuring	6

---

1 When Things Go Wrong: System Failure and Police Reform	11
---	-----------

Introduction	11
---------------------	-----------

System Failure: A Driver for Reform	12
--	-----------

System Failure and Reform in the Public Sector	12
System Failure, Policing, and Police Reform	13
Policing and Vulnerability to System Failure	14
System Failure as Corruption	16
Scandal and Police Reform the British Way: Two Forms of Miscarriages of Justice	19

System Failure and Police Reform: Case Studies	23
---	-----------

Confait, Confessions, and the Police and Criminal Evidence Act	23
The Brixton Riots, Scarman, and the Rebirth of Community Policing	26
Stephen Lawrence, Macpherson, and Police Reform	33
Institutionalized Racism, Police Investigations, and Training	34
Family Liaison and Police Investigations	36
Review of the Investigative Process	37
Independent Investigation of Police Complaints	38
The Guildford Four and Birmingham Six Cases: Turning the Tables on Police Reform	40

Conclusion	43
-------------------	-----------

---

2 Import Duties: Police Reform and Influences from Abroad	46
--	-----------

Introduction	46
---------------------	-----------

Born in America: From 'Over There' to 'Over Here'	50
--	-----------

Policing by Objectives: The Emergence of 'Planned Policing'	51
---	----

Problem-Oriented Policing: Community Policing Meets Intelligence-Led Policing	55
Broken Windows and Zero Tolerance Policing: Importing Intolerance	60
Closer to Home: Policy Transfer from Neighbouring Systems	67
Going Dutch: The Emergence of Police Community Support Officers	67
The Irish Solution: Patten and Police Reform	70
Export Policing: British Policing Models on the Move	74
Community-Oriented Policing: British Policing Styles Reinvented Abroad	75
Investigative Interviewing: Exporting Investigative Technique	78

---

3 Policing as a Performing Art? ‘Value for Money’ and Police Reform 83

Introduction: Value for Money Thinking	83
FMI Meets Policing: Circular Thinking	92
Inspecting Morse: Audit, Inspection, and Regulatory Governance	95
Performance Indicators for Policing	102
The Basic Command Unit: The Hub of Police Management and Activity	104
New Labour Meets New Public Management: More in Store for the Police	107
The Nationalization of Policing: Improving Effectiveness through Centralization?	111
National Police Agencies	111
National Police Standards and Policy Frameworks	114
Force Restructuring: Driving up Performance—Reducing Waste	119
Workforce Modernization: ‘More for the Same’	123

---

4 Forces from Within: Internal Drivers for Police Reform 127

Introduction	127
Policy Entrepreneurs and Police Entrepreneurs: Visionaries in Policing	128
The Police Visionary: John Alderson and the Community Policing Paradigm	131
Policy Entrepreneurs and Reforming the Police Organization From Within—From Newman to Imbert	135
Police Reforms and Police Pressure Groups: Shaping Reform Agendas from Within	141
The Policy That Wasn’t: Agenda-Resistance and the Demise of ‘Sheehy’	144
The Policies that Changed: Police Governance, Police Functions, and Agenda Reshaping	148

Out of the Blue: Agenda-Setting and the 'Rebalancing' of Criminal Justice	156
<hr/>
5 The Politics of Policing and the Politics of Police Reform: Too Hot to Handle or Too Hot to Leave Alone?	164
Introduction	164
The Early Thatcher Years and the Politics of the Police: Backing the Boys (and Girls) in Blue	167
The Party's Over: Turning the Screws	173
The Second Honeymoon: Police Back in Favour	179
New Labour and New Friends: A Labour 'Concordat' with the Police	183
Into the New Century: The Gloves Come Off	188
Radical Police Reform Under Labour I: Disempowerment	190
Police Policy-Making	191
The Regulatory Framework	192
Radical Police Reform Under Labour II: Empowerment	195
Empowerment as Summary Justice	195
Empowerment as Community Engagement	198
Labour, Police Reform, and the Politics of Law and Order: Too Hot to Leave Alone	202
<hr/>
Conclusion	206
Police Reform and Policing Policy: Incrementalism, Mixed Parentage, and Cycles	206
The Future of Police Reform	209
The Decentring of the Public Police	211
The Politicization of Policing and the Rise and Rise of the Performance Culture	212
The Reinvention of the Police Constable	215
Citizenship Policing	216
References	221
Index	237