

Contents

OPENING WORDS

Cardinal Paul Poupard

Message 7

Stefan Waanders

Radboudstichting 100 year 13

Cardinal Renato Martino

Work and Human Dignity in the Social Doctrine of the Church 19

EXPERT SEMINAR

Donald Loose

Introduction: in search of a global common good 27

Part I Economic and social reflections

Dominique Peccoud S.J.

Decent work versus financial markets 49

Stefano Zamagni

Positional competition and jobless growth:
the role of civil economy 62

Luk Bouckaert

Ethical opportunities in global markets 80

Veerle Draulans

Civil society organizations, self interest and the common good 90

Part II Cultural and ethical reflections

Jozef Wissink

Individualising global culture and its impact on the conditions of work 111

Sergio Bernal S.J.

Globalisation seen from the other side 121

Fernando Franco S.J.

Identity and human dignity in a multicultural context 136

Part III Human rights and the Social Doctrine of the Church

Toine van den Hoogen

Human Dignity: the birthright of the destitute.
Between social deontology and individual preferences 155

Terence Kennedy C.S.s.R.

Human Rights and the Catholic tradition 169

Mauro Mantovani S.D.B.

The dignity of human work according to the Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church 182

Bishop Adrian van Luyn S.D.B.

'... a major step in humanising the world' 196

About the authors 198

Participants expert-seminar 204

Radboudstichting 206