

Foreword by Lord Quinton page 9

Preface 11

- 1 Sir Hans Sloane and the Foundation of the British Museum 13
 - 2 Beginnings: the Old Royal Library 25
 - 3 The Cottonian and Harleian Libraries 41
 - 4 Montagu House and the early years of the National Library 61
 - 5 The East India Company, its Records and Library 75
 - 6 The New Century: the King's Library 90
 - 7 Antonio Panizzi and the Department of Printed Books in the 19th Century 101
 - 8 The Department of Manuscripts in the 19th Century 121
 - 9 The Development of Oriental Collections 142
 - 10 Maps and Music: the Printed and Manuscript Collections 168
 - 11 The India Office Library and Records 185
 - 12 Bookbindings, Newspapers, Stamps 208
 - 13 Printed Books and Manuscripts in the 20th Century 221
 - 14 America and the Spread of English
Overseas 249
- Epilogue 260
- Index 269
- Further reading 272