

CONTENTS

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS . . . vi

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS . . . vii

PREFACE . . . ix

CHRONOLOGY . . . xi

SYMBOLS AND ABBREVIATIONS . . . xvi

LISZT, CAROLYNE, AND THE VATICAN DOCUMENTS:

The Story of a Thwarted Marriage, by Alan Walker . . . 1

THE VATICAN ARCHIVES

INTRODUCTION . . . 27

From the Secret Vatican Archives, Nunciature of Vienna, 1860–61, Vol. 427.
The file of Monsignor Antonino De Luca (papal nuncio to Vienna) for the diocese of Fulda, containing a special annex: The Matrimonial Case of Wittgenstein versus Iwanowska. 29

From the Secret Vatican Archives , shelf mark Z60, diocese of Zhitomir in Ukraine. The file of the Holy Congregation of the Tridentine Council, pertaining to Princess Carolyne's annulment, 1859–61. 95

From the Archive of the Vicariato di Roma, at St. John Lateran. Shelf mark N.
4477, L/41. The file containing the marriage application of Liszt and Princess Carolyne von Sayn-Wittgenstein, 1861. 213

From the papers of Cardinal Antonelli, Secretary of State. 225

EPILOGUE: The Rome of Pius XI and Gustav von Hohenlohe, by Alan Walker. . . 233

INDEX TO THE ANNULMENT DOCUMENTS . . . 241

SOURCES CONSULTED IN THE PREPARATION OF THIS VOLUME . . . 251

GENERAL INDEX . . . 253

ILLUSTRATIONS

Frontispiece: Liszt in Munich, a photograph by Franz Hanfstaengl (1858).	ii
Plate 1. Princess Carolyne with her daughter Princess Marie. A lithograph by Carl Fischer (1844).	viii
Plate 2. The Altenburg, a watercolor. Anonymous nineteenth-century woodcut based on a drawing by Jordan.	26
Plate 3. Princess Carolyne in Rome, in the clothes she wore at her audience with Pope Pius IX on September 9, 1860.	30
Plate 4. Facsimile of a letter from Archbishop Żyliński to Monsignor De Luca, dated May 24, 1860: "...the petitioner's solicitor did not give out a far-thing...to corrupt the judges."	52, 53, 54, 55
Plate 5. Cardinal Gustav von Hohenlohe-Schillingsfürst (1823–96), Archbishop of Edessa. A photograph.	84
Plate 6. Facsimile of a letter from Bishop Kött to Monsignor De Luca, dated June 11, 1861. "I immediately ordered the Priest in Weimar to send me...the decree of the Holy Congregation..."	90
Plate 7. Franz Liszt, circa 1864. A photograph taken shortly before he received the tonsure.	94
Plate 8. Facsimile of a petition from Princess Marie von Sayn-Wittgenstein to Pius IX, dated September 13, 1859. "She promptly requests Your Beatitude to deign to declare that the Petitioner... enjoys all the rights and privileges pertaining to legitimate offspring."	132, 133
Plate 9. Printed documentation for the meeting of the Holy Congregation of Cardinals, dated September 22, 1860, which upheld the sentence in favor of annulment. "Pontifical secrecy is required."	172
Plate 10. Facsimile of a letter from Monsignor Hohenlohe to Cardinal Caterini, dated October 18, 1861: "...to forestall a great scandal."	210, 211
Plate 11. Pope Pius IX, a photograph.	214
Plate 12. An instrument of interrogation bearing the names of Liszt and Carolyne, dated October 20, 1861, in which the penalties for bearing false witness are set forth.	222
Plate 13. Cardinal Giacomo Antonelli (1806–76), Secretary of State to the Vatican. A photograph.	226
Plate 14. Facsimile of a letter from Liszt to Cardinal Antonelli, dated "Weimar, August 25, 1859," upon being elevated to the rank of Commander of the Order of Saint Gregory the Great... "A valuable proof of the favor with which you look upon my modest merits."	228, 229