

Table of contents

Editor's preface (J.Kolejka)	vii
Situation Assessment for Mitigation Activities: Tools for Building Geographic Knowledge. From Geodata to Geoinformation to Geoknowledge? (C. Siegel, S. Palko)	1
The Dnieper River Basin Challenge: Local and International Response to an Environmental and Human Health Crisis (D. Poletto, K. Babcock)	13
Providing Information in Relation to Chernobyl and the Role of GIS (P.G. de Nooijer, V. Chabanyuk)	25
The Consequences of the Chernobyl Accident: First Results in the Radioecology Project of the French-German Initiative (G. Deville-Cavelin, H. Biesold, C. Brun-Yaba, V. Chabanyuk)	49
Development of the Data Base: Nuclear Fuel And Radioactive Waste, Environmental Impact, and Radiological Situation in Chernobyl NPP 4 th Block "Shelter" (A. Borovoi, S. Gavrilov, G. Pretzsch)	67
From Image Maps to Decision Making (S. Palko, C. Siegel)	77
The Chernobyl Sarcophagus Project of the German-French Initiative (G. Pretzsch, V. L'Homme, A.N. Seleznev, E.S. Seredynin)	85
Radon Risk Assessment in GIS (V. Vozenflek)	97
The Run-Off in Natural and Agricultural Environments (V. Popov)	109
Waste Dumps Around Chornobyl Power Plant: Actual State and Future (E. Sobotovich, V. Skvortsov, C. Brun-Yaba)	121
The Problem of Waste: Searching for GIS Solution (J. Kolejka, J. Pokorný, O. Skrott)	131
Countermeasures on Natural and Agricultural Areas After Chernobyl Accident (I. Bogdevitch, N. Sanzharova, B. Prister, S. Tarasiuk)	147
List of Contributors	159