
Contents

Contributors	vii
Preface to the series and this book	x
Acknowledgements	xii
 Introduction	 1
HELEN ODELL-MILLER AND ELEANOR RICHARDS
 1 The history and background of supervision in music therapy	 5
HELEN ODELL-MILLER
 2 Whose handicap? Issues arising in the supervision of trainee music therapists in their first experience of working with adults with learning disabilities	 23
ELEANOR RICHARDS
 3 Music therapy supervision with students and professionals: the use of music and analysis of countertransference experiences in the triadic field	 45
INGE NYGAARD PEDERSEN
 4 Two's company, three's a crowd: hatred of triangulation in music therapy, and its supervision in a forensic setting	 67
JOHN GLYN
 5 Getting better: some thoughts on the growth of the therapist	 83
DAVID JOHN
 6 Music therapy supervision with trainees in adult psychiatry	 101
HELEN ODELL-MILLER AND NICOLAS KRUECKEBERG
 7 Supervision in context: a balancing act	 119
SANDRA BROWN

8	Supervision of music therapists working with children in schools	135
	AMELIA OLDFIELD
9	Turbulence at the boundary	153
	ALISON DAVIES AND ANN SLOBODA
10	Supervision of PhD doctoral research	173
	TONY WIGRAM
	Index	193