

Table of Contents

1 Introduction.....	9
2 Definitions And Concept: The Theory of Mediaclash.....	13
2.1. What is Politics?	14
The Human Condition.....	14
Separation Of Human Plurality And Distribution Of The Sensible.....	19
Public/Private.....	22
Logos.....	24
Disagreement.....	26
How Does Politics Work?	28
Speaking.....	29
Acting And Its Characteristics.....	31
Politics And The Police.....	35
The Connection Of Theatre And Politics.....	37
2.2. How Can Art Be Political?.....	39
Aesthetics And The Politics of Aesthetics / Aesthetics of Politics.....	40
The Politicity Of Theatre.....	44
2.3. What Is A Medium?.....	48
Theatre as a medium and the use of media within theatre.....	52
2.4. Iconoclash.....	56
2.5. Mediaclash	59
3 Developments Towards The Mediaclash In Political Theatre.....	63
3.1. Can Brecht's Epic Theatre Be Read As A Mediaclash?.....	64
3.1.1. The Techniques Of Epic Theatre.....	67
3.1.2. Socio-Political Developments And Their Influence On Theatre....	77
Science And Labour – From Galileo To The Worker's Society.....	77
From Politics To Society.....	87
3.2. Theatricality of Post-Democracy – Post-Brechtian Symptomatology...	95
3.2.1. From The Society of Spectacle To The Simulation.....	100
3.2.2. Re-Mediatized Human Body – End Of A Theatrical Paradigm?...	109
4 Practical Application – Two Productions As Mediaclashes.....	117
4.1. Christoph Schlingensief – Bambiland	118
4.2. Stefan Kaegi – Torero Portero	135
5 Conclusion: The Goal Of The Mediaclash.....	144
6 Bibliography.....	147
7 List of Images, Illustrations and Media.....	149
8 Kurze Zusammenfassung.....	153