

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction

VALERIA FINUCCI, Ariosto, Tasso, and Storytelling

I

I CROSSING GENRES

RONALD L. MARTINEZ, Two Odysseys: Rinaldo's Po Journey and the Poet's Homecoming in Orlando furioso

17

DANIEL JAVITCH, The Grafting of Virgilian Epic in Orlando furioso

56

JO ANN CAVALLO, Tasso's Armida and the Victory of Romance

77

II THE POLITICS OF DISSIMULATION

SERGIO ZATTI, Epic in the Age of Dissimulation:
Tasso's Gerusalemme liberata

115

WALTER STEPHENS, Trickster, Textor, Architect, Thief:
Craft and Comedy in Gerusalemme liberata

146

KATHERINE HOFFMAN, "Un così valoroso cavalliero":
Knightly Honor and Artistic Representation in Orlando furioso, Canto 26

178

III ACTING OUT FANTASIES

VALERIA FINUCCI, The Masquerade of Masculinity:
Astolfo and Jocondo in Orlando furioso, Canto 28

215

ERIC NICHOLSON, Romance as Role Model: Early Female
Performances of Orlando furioso and Gerusalemme liberata

246

NAOMI YAVNEH, "Dal rogo alle nozze":
Tasso's Sofronia as Martyr Manqué

270

CONSTANCE JORDAN, Writing beyond the Querelle:
Gender and History in Orlando furioso

295

Index 317

Contributors 327