

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction In the Denunciatory Tradition i

I Countermodernism

- 1 The Game of Slipknot 19
- 2 Toward a Sociology of Humor: Léon Gontran Damas and Body Talk 67
- 3 Counterexertions: Theorizing the Francophone Condition 93

II Counterstorytelling

- 4 Colonialism, Literary Tradition, and Counterstorytelling 103
- 5 Postscripts: Mariama Bâ, Menopause, Epistolarity, and Postcolonialism 126
- 6 Moroccan Independence: Status Inconsistency, Role Conflict, and Consciousness in Tahar ben Jelloun's The Sand Child 148
- 7 The Blossoming of the Undefined Self: Ken Bugul and Le Baobab fou 173

III Counterconfession

- 8 Words Proffered in Pain: Gérard Etienne, Shame, and the Counterconfession 213

Conclusion The Francophone: Coming out from under the Sign of Persephone and "the Dark Night of the Postcolonial African World" 266

Notes 277

Index 295