

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Foreword Allen Mandelbaum	ix
Introduction Jo Ann Cavallo & Charles Ross	1
FORTUNE
The Fortunes of Morgana: From Boiardo to Marino David Quint	17
Orlando's Opportunity: Chance, Luck, Fortune, Occasion, Boats, and Blows in Boiardo's Orlando Innamorato James Nohrnberg	31
Trade and Fortune: Morgana and Manodante Michael Murrin	77
Denying Closure: Ariosto's Rewriting of the Orlando Innamorato Jo Ann Cavallo	97
ROMANCE
"Io ben comprendo la vergogna": The Faces of Shame in the Orlando Innamorato Werner Gundersheimer	137
Love, Lust, and Avarice: Leodilla between Dante and Ovid Manuele Gragnolati	151
Damsel in Distress? Origille's Subjectivity Charles Ross	175

HUMANISM AND LITERACY

- Double Vision: Boccaccio's Filocolo in Boiardo's Orlando Innamorato
John McMichael 193
- Bella Istorìa, Vera Istorìa, and Boiardo's Competent Reader
Richard F. Sorrentino 205
- The Promotion of Literacy in the Orlando Innamorato
Michael Sherberg 221
- On the Indignity of Man:
The Quarrel between Boiardo and Pico della Mirandola
Kathleen Crozier Egan 237

THE ARTS IN FERRARA

- Boiardo and the Visual Arts in Ferrara:
Comparisons and Convergences
Joseph Manca 261
- Commemoration, Self-Representation, and the Fiction of
Constancy in Este Court Portrayal
Jodi Cranston 271
- The Room and the View: A New Look at
Giulio Boiardo's Private Apartments at Scandiano
Katherine A. McIver 279
- Musical Culture in Late Quattrocento Ferrara:
Local Traditions and Foreign Influences
Leeman L. Perkins 295

BOIARDO'S MINOR WORKS

- Aphasia and the Divided Self: Boiardo's Amorum Libri Tres
Robert J. Rodini 317
- Staging Timon the Misanthrope
Nancy Dersoff 329
- Index 339
- Notes on Contributors 368