

CONTENTS

Foreword	xi
Robert Louis Jackson

HISTORY

From Alyagrov's Letters	1
Roman Jakobson
A Political Gloss to the History of the Polish Formalist Movement	6
Wiktor Weintraub
Literature as an Institution: Fragments of a Formalist Theory	15
William Mills Todd, III
The Praxis of Irony: Viktor Shklovsky's Zoo	27
Peter Steiner
The Formalist Series "Masters of Contemporary Literature" and the Literary Polemics of the 1920s	44
Greta Nachtailer Slobin
Shklovsky and the History of Literature: A Footnote to Erlich's Russian Formalism	57
Aleksandar Flaker
Khodasevich and Formalism: A Poet's Dissent	68
John E. Malmstad
Bakhtin and the Formalists: History as Dialogue	82
Michael Holquist
From "Dominant" to "Semantic Gesture": A Link Between Russian Formalism and Czech Structuralism	96
Sergej Davydov

Soviet Structuralism, A Semiotic Approach	114
Edward J. Brown

DOCTRINE

Three Conceptions of Poetic Language	130
Tzvetan Todorov
Familiarization and Its Semiotic Matrix	148
Henrik Birnbaum
The Concept of Originality in Formalist Theory	162
Karen Rosenberg
Return to Genesis: Russian Formalist Theories of Creativity	173
Gary Saul Morson
Viktor Shklovsky and the Formalist Legacy: Imitation/ Stylization in Narrative Fiction	195
Peter Hodgson
The Formalists on Gogol	213
Robert A. Maguire
Bakhtin's View of Dostoevsky: "Polyphony" and "Carnavalesque"	231
René Wellek
Plotlets and Schemes	242
Robert L. Belknap
A Few Remarks on Propp's Morphology of the Folktale	252
V. N. Toporov
The Formalist Approach and the Study of Medieval Orthodox Slavic Literature	272
Riccardo Picchio and Harvey Goldblatt
Style as Significance: Yury Tynyanov's Semantics of Cinema	289
F. W. Galan	