

Contents

Preface vii

Introduction—The Contemporary Novel in France:
A Generation of Writing and Criticism, by William Thompson 1

Part I: Continuing "Traditions" and Changing Styles

1. Autobiographical Fictions, by Raylene Ramsay 37
2. Julien Green, by Robert Stanley 54
3. Julien Gracq, by Michel Viegnes 74
4. Marguerite Duras, by Thomas Broden 89
5. Robert Pinget, by Robert Henkels 109

Part II: Innovations in Language and Form

6. Philippe Sollers, by Katherine C. Kurk 127
7. Jean Ricardou, by Tobin Jones 145
8. Jacques Roubaud, by Susan Ireland 163
9. Hélène Cixous, by Martine Motard-Noar 184
10. Jean Echenoz, by William Cloonan 200

Part III: Writing, History, and Myth

11. Elie Wiesel, by Jack Kolbert 217
12. Andrée Chedid, by J. D. Mann 231
13. Michel Tournier, by Susan Petit 248
14. Patrick Modiano, by Katheryn Wright 264
15. Monique Wittig, by Laurence M. Porter 279

Part IV: New Narratives, New Traditions

16. Benoîte Groult, by Catherine Slawy-Sutton 295
17. Dominique Fernandez, by Marie-Thérèse Noiset 313
18. Yann Queffélec, by Paul Raymond Côté 331
19. Patrick Drevet, by Gervais E. Reed 352
20. Jean-Philippe Toussaint, by Roy C. Caldwell 369

Bibliography 383

Contributors 414

Index 416