

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface	ixi
Introduction	1
1 Deportation, detention and torture by proxy: foreign national terror suspects in Britain	11
2 In between allegiance and evilization: the Muslim question post-7/7	29
3 Counter-terrorism, community relations, radicalization and 'Muslim grievances'	50
4 Cohesion, citizenship and integration (beyond multiculturalism?)	82
5 Culture change – the Commission for Equality and Human Rights – future proofing the nation	108
6 Shared values, Britishness and human rights	128
Afterword	145
Notes	148
Bibliography	166
Index	191