

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword	17
Chapter 0: Introduction	19
Chapter 1: Phonology	21
Consonants	21
The phonetic realization of the Lithuanian consonants.
Palatalization	22
Orthographic representation of the Lithuanian consonants	23
Consonant alternations	24
Consonant assimilations	24
Degemination	26
Differentiation and metathesis	26
The vowels	26
The short vowels	26
Spelling of the short vowels	27
The long vowels	27
Spelling of the long vowels	27
Comparison between the systems of short and long vowels	28
Vowel lengthenings	28
1. Lengthening of e and a in stressed syllables	28
2. Compensatory Lengthening due to Loss of Nasal	29
Diphthongs	30
Vowel alternations (ablaut)	31
Suprasegmentals	32
Stress	32
Quantity	32
Tone	33
Stress Movements	34
1. Stress movements triggered by de Saussure's law	34
2. Stress movements not originating from de Saussure's law	35
Symbols for designating accent classes	35

Chapter 2: The Noun	37
Grammatical categories	37
1. Gender	37
2. Number	38
3. Case	38
Declensional types	38
First declension	40
Paradigms with comments	40
Reflexive nouns	41
Accentuation	42
Second declension	44
Paradigms with comments	44
Accentuation	45
Third declension (i-stems)	45
Paradigms with comments	45
Accentuation	46
Fourth declension (u-stems)	47
Accentuation	47
Fifth declension (Consonant stems)	48
Paradigms with comments	48
Accentuation	49
Heteroclitics	49
Indeclinables	50
Singular and plural nouns	51
Word Formation	53
I. Suffixal derivatives	53
1. Designations of persons	53
2. Abstracts	53
3. Collective nouns	54
4. Designations for instruments	54
5. Designations for location (place)	55
6. Diminutives and augmentatives	55
7. Surnames	56
II. Prefixal derivatives	56
1. Formations denoting persons	56
2. Formations denoting place	56
3. Formations denoting time	56
III. Non-prefixal compound nouns	57
Chapter 3: The Adjective	58
General characteristics	58
The nominal (short/indefinite) form	59

First declension	59
Accentuation	60
Second declension	60
Accentuation	61
Third declension	61
Accentuation	61
The special "neuter" form	62
The pronominal (long/definite) form	62
Degrees of comparison	62
I. The comparative	62
1. Synthetic forms	62
Accentuation	63
2. Analytic forms	63
II. The superlative	63
Accentuation	64
Comparative degree of the special "neuter" form	64
The pronominal (long/definite) form	64
Accentuation	66
Syntax of the adjectives	67
I. The nominal (short/indefinite), non-neutral form	67
'So good as' etc.	68
Elative function	68
Strengthening of the positive and comparative degrees	68
II. The special "neuter" form	68
Strengthening of the positive and comparative degrees	68
III. The pronominal (long or definite) form	69
Word Formation of adjectives	70
I. Suffixal derivatives	70
II. Prefixal derivatives	71
III. Non-prefixal compound adjectives	71
Chapter 4: The Pronoun	72
1. Personal pronouns	72
2. The anaphoric pronoun of the 3rd person	74
3. Possessive pronouns	75
A. Non-reflexive possessives	75
B. Reflexive possessives	75
C. Additional comments on possessive pronouns	75
4. Reciprocal pronouns	76

5. Demonstrative pronouns	77
Additional comments on demonstrative pronouns	78
6. Interrogative and relative pronouns	79
Interrogative function	79
Relative function	79
7. Indefinite pronouns	80
8. Negative pronouns	81
9. Other pronouns	81
Chapter 5: The Numerals	83
I. Cardinal numbers	83
1. Plain cardinal numbers	83
Declension	84
Accentuation	85
Syntax	85
2. The special cardinal numbers	86
Syntax	86
3. Collective numbers	87
Syntax	87
II. Ordinal numbers	88
Declension	88
Accentuation	89
Syntax	89
III. Fractions	90
Decimal fractions	91
Chapter 6: The Verb	92
The grammatical categories of the Lithuanian verb	92
Finite and non-finite forms	93
Reflexive and non-reflexive verbs. Transitives and intransitives	93
Verb stems	93
Morphophonemic rules	94
The Finite Verb	95
Disposition	95
Conjugational types	95
Predictability of conjugational type on the basis of the infinitive	96
The Formation of the tenses of the indicative active.
General considerations	96
Non-reflexive verbs	96

Reflexive verbs	96
Accentuation	97
Formation of the simple tenses	97
I. The simple present	97
1. Verbs of the first conjugation	97
2. Verbs of the second conjugation	99
3. Verbs of the third conjugation	100
Reflexive forms	100
Accentuation	101
II. The simple past	103
1. The non-frequentative past	103
Accentuation	105
2. The frequentative past	106
III. The future tense	106
1. Verbs of the first conjugation	106
2. Verbs of the second and third conjugations	108
Accentuation	108
Principal forms	109
I. The Verb būti 'to be'	109
II. Principal forms with ablaut	110
1. Long vowel in the infinitive and the past vs. originally short in the present tense	110
2. Long vowel in the past vs. short in the infinitive and the present tense	110
3. Short -i- in the infinitive and the past tense vs. -e- in the present tense	111
4. Long vowel in the present tense vs. short in the infinitive and the past	112
III. Principal forms without ablaut	113
Formation of the compound tenses	114
I. The present perfect	115
II. The past perfect	115
III. The future perfect	116
Formation of the thwarted inceptive and progressive forms	116
Aspect and Tense	119
Introduction	119
I. Aspect	119
Perfectivization	120

Imperfectivization	121
Aktionsarten	121
II. Tense	122
Simple tenses	122
1. The present tense	122
2. The past tense	124
3. The future tense	124
Modal uses of the simple future	125
Compound tenses	125
1. The present perfect	125
2. The past perfect	126
3. The future perfect	126
Modal Nuances of the compound future	127
Limitations	127
Tense/aspect forms	127
Mood	128
1. The indicative	128
2. The imperative	129
A. The imperative proper	129
B. The permissive/optative	129
3. The subjunctive	130
A. Formation	130
a) The present subjunctive	130
Accentuation	130
b) The past subjunctive	131
Subjunctive passive	131
The difference in meaning between the present and past subjunctive	131
B. Major functions of the subjunctive	132
4. The relative mood	133
Formation	134
Meaning and use	134
Modality. Lithuanian equivalents of English modal auxiliaries	136
Negated modality	137
Voice	139
Definitions	139
Morphology of the active voice	139
Use of the active voice	139
Morphology of the passive voice	140

Motivations for choosing passive constructions.
General considerations	141
1. The functional sentence perspective	142
2. Agent deletion	142
The equivalents of English passives in Lithuanian	142
Reflexive and non-reflexive verbs	145
Transitivity and intransitivity	148
The non-finite forms of the verb	150
I. The infinitive	150
Formal characteristics	150
Accentuation	150
Syntax of the infinitive	150
Infinitive II	151
Formation and stress	151
Syntax of infinitive II	152
II. Gerunds and participles	152
1. The gerunds	153
Formation	153
A. Indeclinable gerunds	153
B. Partly declinable gerunds	153
Syntax and semantics of the gerunds	154
A. Indeclinable gerunds	155
B. Partly declinable gerunds	156
2. The participles	157
Formation	158
A. Active participles	158
Declension of the present and past active participles	159
Accentuation	160
"Neuter" forms	160
Pronominal (long, definite) forms	161
B. Passive participles	161
"Neuter" forms	163
Reflexive forms	163
The syntax of participles	163
A. Active participles	163
B. Passive participles	164
The passive participle of necessity	165

Concluding remarks on participles	165
III. Verbal Noun	165
Accentuation	166
Verb: Word Formation	168
Suffixation	168
Prefixation	169
Verb particles	171
Chapter 7: The Adverb	173
Stress rules	174
Degrees of comparison	175
"Very fast : much faster"	175
Accentuation	175
Syntax and semantics of the adverb	176
Indefinite and negated adverbs	176
The Negation	176
Chapter 8: Case	178
The Genitive	179
I Adnominal genitive	179
1. Non-partitive genitive	179
A. The governing word is a noun	179
a) The possessive genitive	180
b) The subjective and c) the objective genitive	180
d) Genitivus definitivus	180
e) The descriptive genitive	181
f) The genitive of material	181
B. The governing word is an adjective	181
2. The partitive genitive	181
A. The governing word is a noun	181
B. The governing word is an adjective	182
C. The governing word is a numeral	182
D. The governing word is expressed by other quantifiers	182
II Adverbial genitive	182
1. Partitive function	182
A. Certain transitive verbs	182
B. Existential constructions	183
C. The genitive with verbs with the meaning 'to lack' and 'to be sufficient'	183

2. Non-partitive function	184
A. Genitive verbs	184
B. Negative constructions	185
a) Transitive verbs	185
b) Logical subject	185
c) The agentive	185
d) The genitive of purpose	186
The Accusative	186
I. Adverbial accusative	187
II. Adverbial accusative	187
The Instrumental	188
I. Adnominal instrumental	188
A. Nouns governing the instrumental case	188
B. Adjectives and participles governing the instrumental case	188
II. Adverbial Instrumental	189
A. Instrumental object with autosemantic verbs	189
B. Instrumental after copulative verbs	189
III. Adverbial instrumental	190
The agentive	191
The Dative	191
I. Adnominal dative	191
1. The governing word is a noun	191
2. The governing word is an adjective	192
3. The dative of age	192
II. Adverbial dative	193
1. Dative + accusative	193
2. Dative as the only object	193
3. Dative in impersonal constructions	194
4. Dative + infinitive	194
III. Adverbial dative	194
Dative with gerunds	195
The Locative	195
The Nominative	196
The Vocative	196

Chapter 9: Prepositions	198
1. Prepositions of place	199
2. Prepositions of time	200
3. Prepositions of purpose	201
4. Prepositions of comparison	201
5. Prepositions of cause	201
6. Prepositions of other meanings	201
Summing up	202
Chapter 10: Time expressions	203
1. The 24 hour cycle	203
2. Hours	203
3. The days of the week	204
4. The month(s)	204
5. The seasons of the year	204
6. The year	204
7. Century	204
8. Dates	204
9. Undetermined time expressions	204
10. How long? How often?	204
11. For how long?	205
12. Before/after	205
13. From - to (till)	205
14. During	206
15. In (after)	206
16. In (so and so long time)	206
17. Towards	206
Chapter 11: Conjunctions	207
1. Coordinate	207
A. Copulative	207
B. Adversative	207
C. Disjunctive	207
2. Subordinate	208
A. Explicative	208
B. Adverbial	208
a) Conjunctions of time	208
b) Conjunctions of purpose	208
c) Conjunctions of result	208
d) Conjunctions of reason	208
e) conditional	209
f) concessive	209
g) comparative	209

Chapter 12: The Sentence	210
Definition	210
The Members of the Sentence	210
The principal members of the sentence	210
The subject	210
Deletion of the 3rd p. subject pronoun	211
The predicate	211
Deletion of copulative verb	212
The syntactic relationship between subject and predicate. The nature of the predicate	212
The dependent members of the sentence	213
The object	213
The adverbial	214
Difficulties in distinguishing objects from adverbials	214
The attribute	215
The apposition	215
Classification of the sentence	216
Subsequent disposition	217
The simple sentence	217
Two part sentences	218
One part sentences	218
Verbal one part sentences	219
Infinitive sentences	220
Nominal one part sentences	221
The compound sentence	222
Coordination	223
Subordination	223
1. Explicative clauses	223
A. non-interrogative	224
B. interrogative	224
2. Determinative clauses	224
3. Adverbial clauses	225
A. Adverbial clauses of time	226
B. adverbial clauses of purpose	225
C. adverbial clauses of result	227
D. adverbial clauses of reason	227
E. adverbial clauses of condition	227
F. adverbial clauses of concession	227
G. adverbial clauses of comparison	227
Equivalents of 'than' and 'the -the'	228
H. Adverbial Clauses of Manner	228

Final Remarks	228
Asyndetism	229
Chapter 13: Agreement	230
A. Special cases of agreement in gender	231
B. Special cases of agreement in number	233
C. Special cases of agreement in person	234
D. Special cases of agreement in case	234
Chapter 14: Word Order	236
Introductory remarks	236
I. The position of the members of the sentence	238
1. Declarative sentences	239
A. Non-extended sentences	239
B. Extended sentences	239
a) Adverbial extensions	239
b) Object extensions	240
One object	240
Two objects	242
2. Interrogative sentences	242
II. The position of the members in the noun phrase	243
Participle attributes	244
III. The position of clitics. Clitic rules	245
1. The proclitic interrogative particle ar	245
2. The proclitic verbal particles te- , be- , tebe-	245
3. The proclitic negational particle ne-	246
4. The enclitic particle -ai	246
5. The endoclititic particle -gi	246
6. The endoclititic particle -s(i)/-is	247
Reference literature	248
Indexes	251