

CONTENTS

Preface	9
I. The Theory of Language	15
1. The Origin of Language	15
2. The Logos in Nature or the Analogy between Matter and Mind	19
3. The Dialectic of Form and the Formless	23
4. The Organic Approach to Language	32
5. Language and Revelation	37
6. The Theory of Language and Theological Method	41
7. Conclusion	45
II. The Origin of Language	47
1. Language as a Mechanical Invention.	48
2. Language as a Divine Gift	56
3. Language as an Organic Development	61
III. Language and Thought	79
1. The First School: Logical Method the Norm of Language.	80
2. The Second School: Figurative Speech Normative	96
IV. Logical Skepticism, Biblical Poetry, and Eloquence	121
1. Skepticism toward Logical Method implicit in the Lockean, Common Sense Conception of Language	121
2. The Bible as a Work of Poetry	134
3. The Trend toward Thinking of Eloquence as the

Natural Manner in which All Deep Thought and Honest Conviction would Express itself	135
V. The Language of Nature	146
1. Nature as a Language	146
2. The Puritans and Jonathan Edwards on Natural Imagery	163
VI. Language and the Trinity: Three Views.	179
1. The Anti-Trinitarianism of Andrews Norton	180
2. Nathaniel W. Taylor's Orthodox Defense of the Trinity	189
3. Horace Bushnell's Symbolical View of the Trinity	207
VII. Attacks on the Language Theory	229
1. Words in the Second Department of Language not All Sensibly Derived	229
2. Most Words, though once Figurative, are no longer so; and the Ambiguities with which they are charged in Bushnell's Language Theory either do not exist, or they are readily removed by the Linguistic Contexts in which they are used	237
3. Bushnell's Doctrine of the Logos in Nature and Mind unfounded and Inconsistent with his other Views.	244
4. Bushnell's Theory of Language Contradicts "All the Facts of Consciousness and Observation on which not only Theology, but the whole Fabric of Social Life is Founded"	250
5. Bushnell in Error in Setting Feelings over the Reason: "The illuminated Intellect informs and controls the Affections"	270
6. Aftermath: Theology in New England subsequent to Bushnell	282
Bibliography	287
Index of Names	292
Subject Index	295