

Contents

Introduction	ix
--------------	----

PART I. THE PROBLEM OF EVIL

1. The Need for Theodicy	3
2. Theodicy in Christian Tradition	30

PART II. THE GOOD GOALS OF CREATION

3. Beauty	49
4. Thought and Feeling	54
5. Action	82
6. Worship	111

PART III. THE NECESSARY EVILS

7. The Fact of Moral Evil; and Free Will	125
8. The Range of Moral Evil; and Responsibility	138
9. Natural Evil and the Scope for Response	160
10. Natural Evil and the Possibility of Knowledge	176
11. The Evils of Sin and Agnosticism	193
Conclusion to Part III	217

PART IV. COMPLETING THE THEODICY

12. God's Right	223
13. Weighing Good against Bad	237
Additional Notes	253
Index	259